Biography

Margaret Hessling, age 87 of Livonia, passed away on May 6, 2022, at her home. Margaret was born in Harbor Beach, to the late Walter and Mary (Lacey) Nitz. She was the oldest of five children and was raised on a farm spending many hours helping her father tend crops and care for animals. She attended the one-room Swayze Grade School and went on to graduate from Our Lady of Lake Huron High School in Harbor Beach. Margaret met Clarence Hessling at a local dance and they were married in October 1954. They lived in Ruth for a short time and then oved to Redford where they raised their four children. Later they purchased a home in Livonia. Margaret's work career began as secretary for Judge Art Bach and James M. Umphrey, P.C., Bad Axe. She later worked at Pennsylvania Steel in Redford and H & R Block. She volunteered for Right to Life- Lifespan, Livonia. Margaret was a devoted mother, wife, friend, and coworker. She had a wonderful sense of humor, was generous, very intelligent and kind. She loved listening to polka music, working on crossword puzzles and crocheting, especially crocheting decorative edges on greeting cards.
