

THINK

The Bible speaks often of the power of words to both heal and harm. A way to better insure that the words you use will be healing, is to subject the thought you have in your mind or emotion on heart, to these five simple questions outlined in the acronym THINK:

