

Forgive and Forget

I know how it is.
Everything was right, but you didn't intend to.
You were over at a friend's
When the night came to an end
It was easier to stay.

I know how it feels.
A moment that's right can linger forever.
And, I know how it hurts.
I also know the intrigue.
The pleasures in my mind
Of someone else and mine.

Oh, forgive and forget.
Everybody makes mistakes sometimes.
Oh, forgive and forget.
Time can soothe you,
And memories can fool you.

Oh, when I remember
All of the times that we've spent together
Divide them good and bad and lay them out.
No matter how I measure,
It's always been my pleasure.

Oh, forgive and forget.
Everybody makes mistakes sometimes.
Oh, forgive and forget.
Time can soothe you,
And memories can fool you.
