

Myrtle Beach Christmas Show Trip

November 8 - 12, 2020

5 Days, 4 Nights

Sunday ♦ Travel Day

With an early start, we will make the trip to Myrtle Beach, SC in one day. On board the coach, your escort will provide snacks and beverages. There will be a movie and games to pass the time of our journey south. We make a stop to see Pedro at South of the Border, a South Carolina roadside staple for 69 years. Dinner tonight is included at the Beach Cove Resort, our home for the next four nights. (D)

Monday ♦ Myrtle Beach

After breakfast, we visit Brookgreen Gardens. Spanning 9,100 acres of lush, low-country landscape, Brookgreen Gardens opened in 1931 as the country's first public sculpture garden and quickly became one of Myrtle Beach's most beloved attractions. Lunch is available on your own at the gardens. This afternoon we relax and enjoy the Beach Cove Resort. Dinner will be at The Original Benjamin's Calabash Seafood Buffet, a Myrtle Beach tradition for over 30 years. Next we take our seats for the "Legends in Concert Christmas Spectacular". The first half of the performance features traditional tribute songs from the cast. After intermission, the stage transforms into a spirited Christmas scene. Dolly Parton joins Rod Stewart to sing "Baby, It's Cold Outside," and Nat King Cole offers a soulful rendition of "I'll Be Home For Christmas." The Blues Brothers step in to add some comic relief. At one point, the band performs "Carol of the Bells" with light effects flashing in sync. (B, D)

Tuesday ♦ Holiday Fantasea

Depart for the Myrtle Beach Holiday Fantasea developed just for groups like ours visiting Myrtle Beach for the season. We are greeted at the door by Santa. We will receive a welcome bag full of refreshments, water and other goodies. An Elvis impersonator is the emcee for a pre-show sing-along, followed by a performance from the award-winning Carolina Forest High School Show Choir. Throughout the morning guests get a chance to win raffle tickets and prizes, such as $250 gift cards to Tanger Shopping Outlets. At 2:00 PM we enjoy "The South's Grandest Christmas Show at the Alabama Theater". In October, the staff starts decking the halls with garland ribbons, Christmas trees and over 1 million lights. The visuals for Christmas are gorgeous with angels descending from above and toy soldiers tap-dancing on a floor-length piano. After the show there is leisure time and dinner on your own at Barefoot Landing which offers a wide selection of restaurants and unique shops in a beautiful setting. (B)

Wednesday ♦ Myrtle Beach

This morning we visit Ripley's Aquarium located at Broadway at the Beach. Watch thousands of multicolored fish swarm around Rainbow Rock. Follow a 340-foot glide path through the glass tunnels of Dangerous Reef where sea turtles, sawfish, sharks and green moray eels lurk. The Aquarium celebrates the season with its annual Festival of Trees. Hundreds of Christmas trees are set up throughout the exhibits representing the 50 United States and territories, with an 18-foot-tall South Carolina tree as the centerpiece. Lunch is on your own at Broadway at the Beach, where over 20 restaurants and 100 specialty shops encircle a beautiful 23-acre lake. There will be time to relax at our relax this afternoon. Our farewell dinner is at Thoroughbreds Restaurant. You'll enjoy the classic fireplaces, mahogany wood and oil paintings of racing legends like Secretariat. Following dinner, our show tonight is "The Christmas Show of the South" at the Carolina Opry. Christmas magic fills the air as audience members are whisked into a winter wonderland as snow falls and a real horse-drawn carriage rolls onto the stage. Familiar characters such as the Grinch and Elsa from "Frozen" step out to sing a few show-stopping numbers. A great way to celebrate the season and our final night in Myrtle Beach! (B, D)
