May 20, 2018 Sunday Endangered Species Day Open House 11-4 with Cay Randall May available for crystal readings

Join with us to remember the beautiful animals that are no longer with us. We do not want to see these beautiful animals become extinct.

Most of us are attracted to crystals for their color, shape, shine, sparkle or feeling. On a subtler level, we are attracted to them because they strengthen or balance our aura.

Cay Randall May, as an intuitive, will help you in put together a Crystal Kit uniquely suited to this moment in your life's path. For example, if you are feeling stressed and distracted she might suggest crystals to ground, center and calm you. In her reading specific crystals and stones will be mentioned for your kit. Perhaps you already have your crystals and would like her to intuitively tune into their benefits for you. She will then relate them to your talents and needs with focus on any questions which you might have.

That's where we can intuitively explore what would be the best way to store and use your kit's crystal tools. Some people place them into a pouch made from silk, another fabric or leather.

In your consultation, you may wish to discuss possible ways to use the crystals in your kit. That is one of Cay's favorite questions, because she can then intuitively 'listen' to each crystal to explore its personality and history. This goes much deeper and is more specific than merely noting its chemical composition. In fact, the choices you make for your Crystal Kit are likely to be just the ones you need and together we can discover their power for you.

Cay offers intuitive crystal reading for $30 for a 15-minute session.

May 26, 2018 Saturday Reiki 2 Class 10am to 5pm taught by Larry Moore

Reiki is the Universal Life Energy and is safe to use at any time. This has been translated as Rei: Spirit/Soul/Universal and Ki: Energy/Life Force/Breath. Let me share with you techniques passed down from my teachers, as well as practical applications learned in years of practice. We will start with learning the history of my lineage (non-traditional), passing of attunements and practice of self-treatment as well as treatments as a group. I look forward to being with you all in a loving atmosphere sharing within the Light.

Having worked as a medic in the USAF, a suture tech in a pediatric ER, an RN experienced in a variety of settings and specialties as well as a Licensed Acupuncturist for many years, Larry brings an extensive and varied background in the healing arts to share with you. He has taught massage and Asian theory at several schools around the Phoenix area and looks forward to a day of sharing theoretical and practical applications to participants.
