

Questions:

- 1) How many minor students in the district have signed up for Edmodo accounts without parent approval?
- 2) What will the District do with all the illegitimate accounts?
- 3) School started yesterday; will the District continue to allow minor children to sign up for Edmodo accounts without parent approval?
- 4) 50 days ago, just after school ended, we first asked for - The online document students must agree to prior to using Edmodo. When will we get it? Will the District continue to stonewall us?
- 5) Who will Edmodo share our children's personal data with?
- 6) Will Edmodo, or the others, ever delete our children's data?
- 7) Is Edmodo a Data Broker?
 - a. If not - is there anything in their ToS or Privacy Policy that would prevent them, or one of the parties they share student data with, from becoming a Data Broker in the future?
- 8) Will Edmodo be "amassing a profile" on our children?
 - a. If yes –
 - i. How will it affect their future? AND
 - ii. Will it be a psychological profile?
- 9) Since Edmodo is paid with student data instead of cash how will the student data be stored, shared, used, and analyzed? AND
- 10) Will parents ever have access to the data and how it was analyzed by Edmodo and the others?