

“Truth or Lie”

Remember that old children’s tune we use to sing, “Liar, liar pants on fire?” I have yet to see someone’s pants burst into flames...though many times I watch with great anticipation just hoping to see it....

Lying is an epidemic. Unfortunately, the church is no different from than the world because it is full of liars. Did she really just say that? Yes, yes I did. Lying hurts because there is no truth in a lie and lies work against the principles of God and His Kingdom.

I recently researched the “Statistics of Lying” and what I found blew me away. Here are only a few:

- It is estimated that 60% of adults can not have a ten minute conversation without lying at least once.
- The average person tells 4 lies a day, which equals 1460 a year.
- 70% of liars claim they would tell their lies again.
- Lying is considered more common among phone calls than face to face chats.

No wonder the world (and church) is full of broken relationships and people with trust issues! The great news is God is not even tempted to lie. He is the exact opposite of the devil and most people we know. John 8:44 call Satan the father of all liars. All lies means all lies.

We also see in John 10:10 that the devil's only purpose in life is to kill, steal and destroy! And one of the most powerful weapons against mankind is lying. He is actively at work to persuade people to believe any one of his many alternatives to truth.

Today’s message belongs to you! I heard: “I AM perfect in every way, and it’s impossible for Me to lie. I will do exactly what I said I would do”

The Bible is loaded with examples of people who trusted His Word or His prophetic promises. Friends, whatever God has spoke to you He will do. God’s nature prevents Him from lying. With God lying cannot occur. His very character determines that He will never do some things, because to do them would be inconsistent with His principles. He is incapable of lying.

Whatever He has spoken to you is truth! It’s impossible for Him to lie. What God has said is not a lie. It is truth. You need to stop questioning it!

You say that you know God cannot lie, and yet you allow doubt to fill your mind concerning His words and by doing so you are saying to Him, "I don't believe You. You're lying to me. That's just not true!"

Whatever God has spoken to you is completely attainable because He said it. Whatever God has spoken to you is totally doable because He said it, regardless of what the circumstances look like.

The hope set before you today cannot be changed by time. It is completely unable to be changed. This is your hope. Lay hold of it! Flee towards the truth (Hebrews 6:18).

God does not lie. God is not a man. Men lie all the time. Too many times we look at the things God has spoken to us as if a man said them to us!

Remember- "It is impossible for Me to lie. I will do exactly what I said I would do."
