Corpus Christi is Sunday June 23.

At the end of the German Mass (approximately 10:00-10:15) there will be a procession on the street in front of the church.

The procession will begin right after Mass has ended, so please arrive early to be in place and ready to proceed.

After the procession, lunch will be available, prepared by the St. Stephen Society.

All flower donations are welcome, and we especially need lots of rose petals, as well as baskets for the children to use. If you have flowers you wish to donate, please bring them early Sunday morning, well before the start of Mass.

Please Note:

All children attending the Corpus Christi Mass who have received their First Communion this year will receive a gift from St. Stephen Church. The children can have received their First Communion at any church, not just St. Stephen, and are encouraged, but not required, to dress in their First Communion outfits.

Daily Mass readings and prayers in German may be found online at: <http://erzabtei-beuron.de/schott/index.php>

June 9 – 2nd Collection – Retirement Fund for Archdiocesan Priests

Have you ever wondered what happens to our priests after they retire from teaching, preaching, and serving on a regular basis? Where do they go? Who takes care of them? What do they need?

Like us, they desire rest and have needs for care and medical treatment as they grow older. Unlike most of us, though, their modest salaries were never meant to provide for them after many years of service.

Your gift to the Priest Retirement Fund is a meaningful investment and true blessing for the care and comfort of our spiritual fathers as they enter the later chapters in life.

They deserve nothing less. Visit prfla.org to learn more.

June 30 – 2nd Collection – Peter's Pence (Collection for the Holy Father)

Today is the Peter's Pence Collection, a worldwide collection that supports the charitable works of Pope Francis. Funds from this collection help victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous today.

For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Please contact Monika Mohos before or after Sunday Mass for any Mass intentions you would like to request.

Saint Boniface

Saint Boniface - June 5

Born at Crediton, in Devonshire, about 675, his baptismal name being Winifred. His parents were noble and wealthy, and yielded with reluctance to his desire to become a monk when he entered the Benedictine monastery of Nutsall. He longed to become a missionary, and at length departed to preach to the Frisians, but his efforts were in vain, because the people were fighting Charles Martel. Returned to the monastery of Nutsall he was elected abbot, but declined the honor, and before long he left England for Rome in order to go and solicit the aid of Pope Gregory II for the conversion of the Germans. Here he changed his name to Boniface, and having received his commission from the pope proceeded to Thuringia and Bavaria, afterwards going on to Friesland and Saxony, founding monasteries everywhere, and destroying the shrines of idols, on one occasion felling an oak sacred to Thor. In the year 732 the pope sent for Boniface and created him archbishop of Germany, and soon afterwards King Pepin le Bref, whom he had crowned, made him Bishop of Mainz. In his seventy-fourth year Boniface resigned his preferments, and taking once more to his Benedictine habit he crossed the Rhine and went to preach to the Frisians. He went through all the country preaching and baptizing. One night he pitched his tent on the banks of a rivulet and awaited the arrival of some of his disciples. But the morning brought instead an angry crowd of pagans. The servants of Boniface drew their swords and offered to fight, but the saint forbade all resistance, and was slaughtered with fifty-two of his adherents in the year 755. The pagans pillaged the tents, but instead of finding treasures they only discovered books and relics, which they dispersed hither and thither, but which were afterwards found and preserved. The remains were carried first to Utrecht, then to Mainz, and finally to Fulda, the principal monastic foundation of the saint. Among his other foundations were the bishoprics of Eichstadt and Wurzburg.
