

Deepest Desires

Let's keep it real, this website is here because we desired to encourage those in the faith to keep going, to keep reaching ahead, to continue loving and living as long as God gives us breath, we have a purpose and Gina, Alicia, and I desired (there's that word again) whole-heartedly to share and encourage because we realized there was a deep need INSIDE the body of Christ for healing, joy, love, purpose, fulfillment and yes desires to come to pass.

Psalm 37:4 - Delight yourself also in the Lord, And He shall give you the desires of your heart.

We all have desires, we are born with them. We have desires to be a doctor, or a song writer, or a teacher, or a mother, father, an astronaut, a basketball pro, veterinarian, or missionary. The list goes on and God will use us in the area where He's given us these desires – because they spark life within us and we want to share when we are passionate about something.

However, the reality is that we have an enemy so we end up getting knocked around, sometimes our own doing, sometimes just living in a wicked world. Our desires get put on hold or even get shelved. However, victory in Jesus, means VICTORY IN JESUS. So when is it time to launch out again and attempt to step back into our purpose or give our desires another chance? Some of us need more time than others, some of us need pushing, some of us need shoving (lol). Some of us wait entirely too long and sometimes miss out on opportunities because we aren't sure or don't want to get hurt again. But God!! (He redeems!)

If we are honest with ourselves, the desire never really leaves to do that thing we are so passionate about, but the lack of _____ (fill in the blank) sometimes outweighs the need or the motivation.

I was sitting in my car tonight waiting for work and looked over to find what I believe the Lord wants to encourage all of us with.

Do you see the plant that's starting to grow out the side of this tree??

The Lord created a way where there seemed to be no way.... Wow!

Proverbs 13:12 - Hope deferred makes the heart sick, But when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.

The desire/s He placed in each one of us NEVER LEFT. It's just been waiting for the right space, the right place, the right moment, the right opening, the opportunity and it will come – IT WILL COME. Whatever you are holding fast to, will come, and it may not look AT ALL like what you think it should. But don't knock it or cut it down – because it will bring LIFE wherever it is. You will bring the life of Christ wherever you are don't doubt – stay knowing His best for you NEVER LEFT.

Psalm 20:4 - May He grant you according to your heart's desire, And fulfill all your purpose.

It may have gotten pushed down – BUT IT'S STILL THERE. Hold fast my friends. Deep desires are rooted in our God that holds the right time in His hands. ♥
