

Vaughn Miller Sr

Head Coach

UNT Intercollegiate Polo Team
Runners-up 2022 USPA National Intercollegiate Championship

Polo:

Vaughn Miller Sr is Volunteer Head Coach of the UNT Intercollegiate Polo team, runners-up of the 2022 USPA National Intercollegiate Polo Championship, Vaughn has a 19-4 win loss record as Coach of UNT Men, Vaughn has been coaching youth sports since 2005, starting with his sons Vaughn Miller Jr & Vance Miller III at the Park Cities YMCA of Dallas. He teaches polo to youth and adult players alike and has brought dozens of new players into the sport. Vaughn started playing polo in 1995 and has played polo in Dallas & Florida up to the 16-goal level, Vaughn had the winningest polo team at the former Las Colinas polo club in Dallas from 2002-2008, he achieved a 2-goal rating in 2010. Vaughn coached his sons on the Prestonwood Varsity Interscholastic Polo team which won the 2016 & 2019 USPA National Interscholastic Championships and 5 Central Region USPA Interscholastic Championships from 2013-2019. Vaughn and his son Vaughn Miller Jr founded the University of North Texas polo club in 2018 with teammates Andrew Scott & Turner Wheaton. Vaughn also became volunteer Head coach of TCU Intercollegiate polo program in 2011 and has successfully helped foster and grow that program at his home club in Oak Point, Texas. In 2021 Vaughn was instrumental in getting the Texas College Polo Championship televised on ESPNU.

Outside Polo:

Vaughn is a graduate of Highland Park High School and SMU in Dallas with a BA in English. Vaughn is a successful real estate developer and currently President & CEO of VCM Development Group, a commercial real estate investment & development firm in Dallas. Prior to that Vaughn worked for his father, Texas real estate legend, Vance C. Miller, and his grandfather, Texas Icon Henry S. Miller Jr. in their family's real estate business in Dallas Henry S. Miller Company from 1986-2013, where Vaughn was President of the Shopping Center Division. Vaughn is also an Eagle Scout with the Boy Scouts of America.

Charity:

Vaughn & Dena Miller established Prestonwood Polo Foundation in 2010 a 501c3 charity to raise money for children's charities through polo. To date they have raised over $300,000. In 2004 Vaughn played polo with Prince Charles in England to help raise money for the Prince of Wales Charitable Trust