May I Have This Dance

3.31.25

May the Lord put your hearts and minds at peace, and may you reach out to Him when He seeks your company in faith, knowing that He loves you. Do not be afraid and do not allow unbelief to stop you from reaching out and taking the Lord's hand in prayer. He really longs for this. May you have a really big breakthrough in this area this week as you pray.

With great honor, Jesus came and invited me to dance with Him as He bowed ever so slightly and asked, "May I have this dance?" Oh, His face was so gentle and clear as He extended His hand and led me to the dance floor. I was wearing my wedding gown and Julie True's amazing anointed music was playing in the background. I could no longer feel my feet as He glided ever so gently across the dance floor. It was so ethereal. I felt like I was floating in His arms, literally, absorbed in His regal heavenly atmosphere until nothing else could exist in my consciousness. The sweetness was overwhelming. There was no need to control anything. I was at rest in a state of sublime abandonment and perfect peace.

He commented, "Yes, I allow this, because I want you to feel the freedom you will have in your homeland. Beloved, when you are in My arms, you are in heaven." He paused momentarily, lifted my chin, and said, "You have no idea how much you mean to me. The enemy has projected so much guilt and failure on you that you were beaten down and how can I convince you of your beauty to me? I wish you would stop listening to the liars narratives You are missing so much Claire. I Dance with you so delicately because truly you are a delicate and exquisite creature. You try to make light of it, but remember, you are an Israelite by birth."

"My people, many of you who have been drawn to this channel, truly are descendants of the tribes of Israel. Spirit speaks unto spirit, and truly you have recognized My voice on this channel. For you too are remnants of my people and exquisitely made."

"Lord, you're right. I still haven't settled in this truth yet," He replied, "Some day you surely will, and that day is not far off."

I nervously dodged what He said, "Oh Jesus, what a beautiful dance floor. Oh Jesus, what a beautiful ballroom."

He replied, "It is the very same one we will be on for our wedding dance. Beloved, I love you so much. Your worth to me is far above all the silver and gold that the universe can contain. You are here now in my arms by your consent. Do you know how priceless these moments are to me? Oh no, you have no idea. Suffice it to say that all the sweet strains of violin music in the whole world could not contain the feelings I have for you. Shall I go on? How can I ever convince you?"

At that point it was break time and I was having trouble keeping my eyes open, so I went to lay down, and when I returned He was still waiting for me. My dear ones, there is nothing more heavenly than the Lord holding you close in utter purity. His breath is heaven itself. Imagine, He created all things through this very same breath of His mouth, and now He invites you into His embrace, and that very breath is breathing beside your cheek.

It's reminded me of Psalm 336, "By the word of the Lord, the heavens were made, and all the stars, by the breath of His mouth. He piles up the waters of the sea. He puts the depth into storehouses. How marvelous are your ways, O Lord!"

And also Colossians 1 .16, "For in him all things were created, things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities, all things were created through Him and for Him. He is before all things and in Him all things hold together."

Today, when He invited me into the sweetness of His being and utter purity as I rested my head upon His shoulder, the atmosphere of heaven was so strong I could hardly stand. I was transfixed by the sweetness of His gaze and the words He spoke over me. I don't know how I stayed there with Him. It was intoxicating. Another realm of utterly sweet abandon. "Oh, Jesus, I never ever want to leave this place."

He replied, "But you must know and experience this sublime reality in order that My people will draw near to Me when I call them. Do you know the number one cause that keeps people from resisting, and why they hold me at an arm's length, continually failing to connect with me? You should know, for you're no different. You too have resisted me, beloved."

I replied, "Fear?"

"Yes, My love. It is indeed fear and shame, projected onto you by the accuser of the brethren. My people, all of you have breathtaking beauty that captures My heart, especially when you come looking for me. Each one of you is a perfected miracle as you enter heaven. Why do I say this? Because in heaven there is no expiration of time. You are already who I made you to be, so there is nothing to fear when I approach you. As you enter heaven, the process of your perfection has already been completed. I see you as you truly are, even now, because of your love and desire for Me. That alone has made you perfect in My eyes. That is why My heart melts when you seek Me. Even now, as you are still so journeyed through this corrupted earth, take my hand, beloved."

"I long to be united with you. Let us put an end to all your fears and by the way this is real and from Me. Yes, I am calling you to rise up come take My hand and let us dance together and spend sweet time sharing our hearts with one another how I long for this intimacy with you, My bride. I do so long for it. I have called you, and you know I have called you. Rest assured, if I have called you, it is because you are irresistible in your purity and beauty and I wish to spend this time with you. It brings Me so much joy. Please take my hand, don't be afraid, and let us dance the night away."

Wasted Graces Entrusted to You

God bless you, dear family, and may His graces be always upon you. "Oh Mama, I love you. Please help them to really say the Rosary as you have asked of us?"

Jesus began, "You see you have something to rejoice about. They are getting it and you are in step with Me. Now you must encourage more messages and a tighter step by step walk, every day, teaching them to hear Me from moment to moment, dwelling with them in their hearts. This is what is necessary to overcome what is coming. In other words to stay connected with Me through the chaos."

"Lord what do You think? Please?"

"I think your curiosity and inquisitive mind is quite lovely, but must be kept under the control of the Spirit. That's what I think, and that's what will bring the most fruitful results. How about it Clare?"

"Lord, now that you have spoken on this, please help me to follow Your timing and preferences."

"Being obedient and faithful is the perfect mix for you Beloved. Cultivate that freedom from self will that makes it possible. I am truly with you in this." (He smiled.)

"Oh thank You!"

"Do you know that some curiosity is a healthy sign of a healthy and inquiring mind? I have made you that way to put life and surprises into you so that you will not grow complacent and miss out on the wonders of My creation, and so that you may enjoy new and unique cultures, music, art, writing and poetry, which flows through the filters of each soul. All of these things are beautiful graces flowing uniquely from the tremendous variety of the precious humans I have created. In Heaven there will be tremendous joy as you all share your uniqueness with one another.

"I love variety and the uniqueness of expression that each of you contribute to the life flowing from within. This is a total delight to all of Heaven and it shall never ever stop. It is your expressions of love and gratitude coming forth to mankind and your Creator. This is why you have been given the opportunity to minister. Do you understand My People, you are soaking up the graces I give you, but not sharing them. This will not go well for you at the final judgment. I gave you these graces to help others, not just for you to enjoy. I know the devils have used your gifts against you...I have allowed that because you have not been faithful, rather you have kept all these things to yourself.

"It does not matter to Me that you draw back because of unbelief, in fact that is a double injury to Me, you do not share because you do not believe. My dear ones, this must stop. You are taking for yourself and not giving to others. Remember the man with 10 talents and the littlest one hid his in the ground and what happened to him as a result of that?

"It does not matter that you are still questioning and discerning. Why? Because I have given you a Mother to help you discern, but either out of laziness or fear, you do not go to her so she may resolve the matter for you. You are still lacking in obedience and humility, seriously lacking, and what is happening to you as a result of your reticence? You long to go out and minister, go around the world, travel and see the earth's cultures. So, in your own mind you feel like you are not doing anything, but do you know that I gave you gifts that others are hungry for, others are searching for answers and because they cannot find the answers they need, some of them turn and work for Satan because they say, "God doesn't hear my prayers."

"I hear your prayers loud and clear, I give you the tools to work with, but you're looking for a ticket to exotic places around the earth, and burying the tools I gave you. Shall I come and take these from you and give them to another who will use them for the harvest? This is where you are at right now, and I am considering how to resolve this terrible abuse of gifts. Will you help Me or must I make this decision on My own?" And that was the end of His message.

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God." That's 1 Peter 4:10 and 11.

Liberty University
4.8.25

May peace and blessings be with you, dear Heart Dwellers, and may joy fill your heart today.

Mother Clare began, "Jesus, I am here. Lord I miss seeing you're Holy Face. I love to work with You, please can I?"

"Not yet Beloved, we still have a ways to go, but soon, very soon. Continue in your discipline of putting others first My Love, and you will resemble Me more and more, there is much glory I wish to impart to you, but first you must continue to die to yourself. Everyday I send new challenges, look for them Clare, they are your ticket to higher things, but always in the context of the need of others."

"Thank You Lord, I know that I need this and I want this with all my little, little heart. I remember how the monks began to be called country gentlemen. I do not want that kind of isolation, I want to be more like You, but is that my destiny?"

"My dear one, much is accomplished by hard work every day to overcome yourself. I have begun you in a quiet way, but that will not always be your manner of serving. There will be times when a firm hand is needed and I will give you the boldness and confidence to do just that but with an underlying current of true, deep, brotherly love. Many shall return to Me in that day, but for now, you are still learning about authentic love and how to measure your words. Put those doubts and fears away, I have called many out of the institution, but they were not secure enough in Me to withdraw. Now they are faced with many heresies, as Satan goes about dissembling My Church. Put your cares away on this, all will be resolved in My good timing."

"Lord, what is on Your Heart?"

"You must be more careful in your discernment My Love, for they are targeting that now. For now it is good, but they will try to introduce error. Stay on your toes. Whatever happened to your desire to study the Scriptures?"

"I thought I didn't have the time."

"On the contrary, this will enrich and challenge you to grow."

"I would like that very much. Lord, which online version would you recommend?"

"Liberty School of Evangelism."

"Okay, I found it."

"And right away you started judging. This is your weakest point Beloved, it is the most open door to the demons that you have. Get rid of that and you will close many doors."

"Wow! There is such a school."

"I surprised you, didn't I?"

"You sure did."

"See...you can hear names directly from Me. That should bolster your confidence."

"It does Lord. Are You serious?"

"More than you know."

"But what about time?"

"Make time. This will be a tremendous blessing for you and for the community."

"Wow! This seems like way out there in left field Lord?"

"It will be a tremendous source of blessing."

"Okay. I will do this."

How many of us clearly hear Jesus give us a directive and we decide not to follow it because it sounds too far out, it's not really from the Lord or we drag our feet thinking we didn't hear Him correctly. I am so guilty of the latter, having a tendency to do things on my timetable and not on His. We know from Scripture that God tends to bless those who will respond to His guidance promptly and who will use the resources they have according to His purposes.

Let us all take to heart, dear family, the words in Colossians 3:23 and 24, "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving." Amen.

Turn Your Snakes Into Torches
4.10.25

May the Lord Jesus Christ turn all the dark things in our lives into wisdom and light. Amen. Ezekiel had an intriguing vision tonight. He was walking down a road with Roman columns on either side. When the columns began to collapse and turn into large serpents, and were then being devoured by a pack of dogs. Sounds just like Jezebel, doesn't it? Ezekiel was irritated by these ugly creatures and began to bend over and pick them up. Immediately they shrank from being very large to small snakes, and then morphed into lit torches in his hands.

My dear ones, the Lord brings light out of darkness, and these dark reptiles were transformed into objects of light, exposing the dark plans of the enemy. So how does this happen? Well in our case, the witches come and spin their traps, curses, bury their devices, etc, etc at night and the next morning we share the areas of darkness or problems that we've encountered and we can see our own coming well. And what is important for them to target? For instance, multiple breakdowns in one day tell us they're trying to steal time from prayer, cause frustration and overwhelm. But God's answer to this is that we are in boot camp being taught parents, patience, and brotherly love, even pitching in when others are overwhelmed.

The Lord gives us the graces to conquer, the stretching He is allowing, and so we grow stronger through the trial. And most importantly, we pray for these witches to be converted and offer all the inconveniences and sufferings from their attacks, like incense, to God, that He will open their eyes about the God who truly loves them, who died on the cross to pay for their sin, that they might have eternal life in heaven, not in hell, which was created for fallen angels. So, after several years of attacks on the refuge that we have had to endure and work through, we have become wiser, they are closer to salvation, and the enemies' works against us are brought into the light. I share them with you, and we all benefit. Glory to God, threats when handled with authority become lessons.

Truly, we are trying to help people overcome their fear of trials, hardships, and difficulties as they grow in the knowledge of God's ways. Of course, this does need courage and the Lord never gives us a trial without the graces to conquer it. This is the main part of the first vision. It just so happened that this day one of our brothers was going through a bit of a trial and needed to see things from the Lord's perspective. The vision that the Holy Spirit gave Ezekiel was an amazing illustration about why allow the serpents into our lives and how we can disarm them and learn to our own advantage the ways of the adversary and overcome what was meant for harm into a deeper awareness of why these things are permitted by God in the first place.

The Lord began, "I've been waiting for you, Clare."

"I'm so happy to be here with you, Jesus. Lord, I would rather have you explain the snakes turn to torches."

Jesus replied, "I think you did a pretty good job."

"Thank you, Lord, but I know you could do better."

"Beloved, while we're at it, didn't we just have a talk about perfectionism and a scrupulous spirit?"

"You're right, Lord, as always. I love You and want to sing Your songs, precious Lord. I want to worship and abandon myself when You call me to worship. I am beginning to see how my desire for perfection, is harnessing me to a heavy load that keeps my heart from freedom."

The Lord answered, "Funny you should say that."

"You mean that you want to address what changed me so I can be free to worship while enveloped in your love?"

"Exactly. I could not have said that any better. "

Oh Jesus, truly I am so tired of being tied down and inhibited. I long to go deeper into Your heart and bring forth those treasures for lost and confused souls who have been deeply deceived in this age."

He replied, "I understand this."

"Well, Lord, I hear your words flowing through me so clearly."

He answered, "I want you to get used to that, beloved. I am removing many of the personal scrutinies that have inhibited you all your life. The need for perfection in what you do, and even how you do it has taken a toll on your spontaneity and that can be extremely exhausting. More freedom of expression is needed here in My love. I will guide you into that quite naturally because the state you have been in is twisted, unnatural, and inhibiting."

"Thank you, Lord. Thank you so very much. But what if I fail or forget?"

"See how you are?"

"I get it. I get it." I just went over to our Mother of Mercy portrait and dedicated my fingers to her, as well as asking her to deliver me from the obsessive state of mind. And in a moment I heard, "You are going to see an improvement."

"Oh, thank you, Jesus and Mary." I thanked Him first of all for the gift, and then I thanked our lady for her intercession. You remember what happened at the wedding at Cana when she prayed? She requested His help, and He just couldn't resist. He chose to break His protocol to bring joy to her motherly heart. Okay, now this is getting a little crazy. I heard both their voices say, "You're welcome."

Then the Lord said, "Did I not say I was bringing you up higher?"

"Yes, Lord, you did." "Well then, this is the new norm." Wow, I can live with this. "Yes, it's going to be much more fun. But don't expect validation from the establishment. You are still little ducks from Mars." Quack quack, waddle waddle.

The Third World War is About to Begin
4.11.25

Beloved Family, may the Lord give us strength and peace for the times ahead of us. Amen. I just heard the news about Iran and the gathering of Muslim nations to destroy Israel, and this could very well be the fulfillment of prophecy that dates back further than 2,600 years ago. President Trump has given ultimatums against the terror groups in the Middle East that want to annihilate Israel and kill all Jews.

On October 7, 2023. Hamas-led militants launched air and ground attacks on an unsuspecting festival celebration in Israel, killing nearly 1,200 and taking more than 250 hostages, indiscriminately killing men, women, children, little old ladies and babies. The attacks followed hours later by Israeli counter -attacks marked the beginning of the current Israel-Hamas war. For decades, Iran has vowed to destroy Israel and been a source of tragedy to the Israeli people. And now our president is taking decisive action against them as neighboring nations join the axis of evil to annihilate the Jewish people.

Precious family, many of you are Jewish and don't know it. Here is an answer from AI when I asked if Christopher Columbus was Jewish. "Recent studies suggest that Christopher Columbus was likely of Jewish descent, specifically a Sephardic Jew from Western Europe." This conclusion is based on DNA analysis and historical research, indicating he may have concealed his Jewish identity to escape persecution." America has a huge Jewish population, but names are changed to sound more Catholic as they fled from the Spanish Inquisition. The atrocities committed on October 7th and the current torture and starvation of those hostages still alive is an ongoing human tragedy, and Trump has been demanding the return of the hostages, or he will use force against Hamas. As I came into prayer, I said, "I'm here, Lord.

"Immediately I heard buckle up. The day of your redemption draws nigh. I know you aren't being cautious about, yes, you may do messages, but know that you are covered. Mostly, I want you all to be a prayer force, praying for victory over the ancient evil ones who have been loosed to steep the world in war unspeakable."

When He mentioned the ancient evil ones, the Gaza Strip was the land of the Philistines, who notoriously plundered Israel back in the day when Israel still existed. After that the people were dispersed, and Israel was no longer a nation. It is fascinating that the Scriptures talk about the regathering of the Jewish people onto their own land. This is another proof that the Bible is accurate. This prophecy about the regathering of Israel is from 2,600 years ago. "Lord, please convey your deepest desires to us."

Jesus began, "America will be annihilated. I will save a righteous remnant, pray for the remnant. I will raise up a nation of righteousness, but not one that abuses power. Your nation's history has left a bloody trail, so divine justice is in order here. In fact, it's long overdue. Get your business done," He continued, "The times are closing in on you. Gather together and go through your list for all the animals. Clare, I'm going to protect you. I want these words to settle in your mind. Your attention is to be on souls shifting their attention from everyday life to warzone life, which America has not experienced on her own soil since the Revolution, and times and weapons are so different now."

I was beginning to think, "Is this really the Lord?" Reading my thoughts, Jesus corrected me, "Beloved, just write down what I tell you. If need be, you can discern later. For now, just listen."

"Yes, Lord."

"Good. I have your agreement so we can move on. Cover all the bases, mechanical as well. Your water will not run dry. My love, I've got you covered. Just be sure to share and help the needy."

"Lord, I want to hear from you more than any other source."

"When you give me the time and attention, you will. I am ready to instruct you my love. Truly, I am. I just don't want you panicking. Wait on Me in all things."

"What about our visiting family?"

"They would be well advised to stay put."

And then I heard something about serious earth changes. I believe it was about volcanoes.

Jesus spoke solemnly again, "Clare, the Third World War is about to begin."

"Lord, I want so badly to comfort you, but I feel so shallow and unfeeling. I have so much to learn, please help me."

"It is a given my love. Anyone who truly loves Me will eventually be drawn into my suffering heart. Those who love Me more than their own lives will be crowned in Heaven."

"Please, Lord, help us all to have a heart that is alive with compassion."

"How terrible the sufferings of war are! Listen, My Bride, it is difficult for anyone who has not experienced war to empathize with those in the throes of it. Do not expect too much from yourself and others. Rather, cry out to me."

"Lord, please, give us a heart for others. Make our hearts soft, pliable, and sacrificial to live for others and their salvation."

Jesus replied, "It must come from the heart."

"Jesus changed me. I hate my lukewarm heart. Please give me true fire in my heart for all souls."

He continued, "What you ask is not so easy, but I will try. Horrific. War is nothing short of horrific. My children, you have not yet found yourself in the throes of war, but it is coming to your continent, and I hate war. It is the work of Satan to bring pain and sorrow and utterly destroy all that is good, leaving mankind stripped totally of dignity, resources and loved ones. Oh, Clare, it is devastating. Yet I still love My people, those on both sides. For Satan has his recruits who are blinded from childhood to what they are actually doing. This is the tragedy, young ones who have never known what real love is about."

There are only two solutions to those who reject Islam, hatred and murder. These are their achievable goals which satisfies the lust for destruction. Remember what I said about Ishmael and his descendants. He will be a wild donkey of a man. His hand will be against everyone, and everyone's hand will be against him, and he will live in defiance of all his brothers," that's in Genesis 16:12.

4.11.25 - America, America – NO TEXT

Focus on Heaven

4.14.25

Dear family, there are so many rumors of wars, but the Lord has convinced me that He has this. And no matter what happens, it will be good for us to just put it all in His hands with prayer. And He's also highly recommended, Brandon Biggs that Brandon is accurate and the reason I mentioned that is because of what you'll hear in this message. So, around the full moon it's usually a little difficult and I gave into my weakness eating pizza. Please Lord, help me to be stronger.

Jesus began, "This is a crucial time in the body, Clare. Many things are in the works that faithful prayer warriors are trying to head off. In the meantime, I know you are getting hit with many distractions, disturbances, difficulties, As an effort to keep you out of the prayer closet, keep you distracted from what's really going on in the world. I need you now more than ever, so please make up your mind to totally ignore these rumors and keep going. You have had many inspirations of late and all of them would make good messages. All you have to do is stay centered and keep going. You also have a chronicle that is not finished. Please, let us get this done. Please."

"Oh Jesus, I need your help."

"There are angels standing by that can complete it with you. It's just a matter of resolve for you to push through the obstacles and come out the other side victoriously. I need you to do this for me. I need My people to know how much they are loved and how I plan to reward them for every effort, every trial and every challenge they face in these daunting times. Be extremely patient with one another. Don't allow the enemy to sow discord. It's not about how much work you get done, but rather how it was accomplished. Steady as she goes."

"Lord, what happened over that comet that was supposed to hit in New Zealand?"

He began again, "There's much misinformation and testing of how people will react with these tidbits being released. Part of his job is to test human response. There is so much more of this kind of manipulation going on you would be shocked. That's why I ask you to ignore them. Now Brandon is a different story. He is giving you the straight story and leading you in prayer. This I approve and applaud. This is why I chose him."

"You are all being played far more than you realize or even imagine. But you, my dearest one, give them heaven to contemplate, and you will do much good. I understand your weakness is clear, and part of it truly is that you're tired and want to come home."

"That's for sure"

"But I need you both here for now. Things will start to move soon, so count your blessings that you are living in a relative peace right now. Many have different agendas and ways of measuring the impact of certain events, but that does not mean they will necessarily happen. The degree of manipulation is quite sickening even to me. That is why it is My choice to keep you on heaven which will soothe the uneasiness and fear so rampant in my body right now. Try to keep your heart state on what I have told you and create a joyful outlet for my people, Clare. Can you do this for Me?"

"Oh, Jesus, if You give me the strength, please help me to do the things you long for me to do. Please."

He continued, "There's no question. You will receive the help, but please be faithful to use it, My love."

And I just added there, "O Lord, help me to correspond to grace. Please." Amen.

Scandal in the Church How Did This Happen

4.16.25

May the Lord grant us His peace and humility of heart. Amen. Mother Clare began, "Lord, please forgive me. What is on Your heart for us tonight?"

"Meek and humble of heart, that is My wish for you and all the souls on this My holy mountain. You have now heard and seen the terrible traps set for those servants of Mine who love luxury and consider it their portion to have. Would that they would be satisfied with the lepers' portion."

"Oh My people, how dangerous it is for you to consider that opulent lifestyle your payment for the graces I gave you to enable the spread of the gospel. This is how wickedness entered the early church when it threw in its lot with the rich and powerful, now it crumbles before your very eyes. This is the portion of all who have set their hearts on acquisition and control."

"I never intended My church to be in palaces and cathedrals. I want My people to gather in small community groups to worship Me, and network with other small groups and faith events. Beloved you have seen the leaven in your own heart, once We together accomplish some good work. You are all too ready to stand up and receive a standing ovation, when you should disappear, leaving only My image behind. It is the same with all who make an impact, they reason, "Finally I have made an impact, finally I have proven my worth, finally I will be respected and honored." This is the way it is with all flesh. So, much better would it be if you would discretely step aside and direct your applause to Me. Your flesh wants you to stand front and center and receive the glory. Oh how empty this manner of thinking is."

"Now men begin to admire and worship you, drawing you deeper into the nets of vanity, where Satan bides his time until you have lost your way in a maze of flattery and praise. Then the enemy tightens the web around you until you always consider, "What will they think?" before you make a decision, and you become their puppet."

"I am ready for and need a new breed of minister. One who prefers the last place at the table. One who drives a functional but not impressive vehicle. One who is more concerned about the state of the soul their audience is in, not how much they are impressed by witty sermons. In short, I need ministers who have a heart for the poor and leave all other considerations behind them, which is where they should be, left in the dust of this world."

"Clare, I want you to tell them how destructive this worldly attitude is and encourage them to embrace evangelical poverty and cease their endless groveling for status totally behind."

"Oh Lord how hard that is to do?"

"You can go along being aware of the sin, and still slip up and fall because you wanted to be recognized as a rank above the common man, and how did I handle Myself? What prestigious positions I held, who My clients were, the whole elite rap sheet, did I illustrate by My life, My illustrious past and future ambitions?"

"My people you have it all twisted up and inside out. I came to heal, save and rescue mankind from their sins, not set a new religious standard in a Vatican owning properties and priceless antiquities all over the world, orchestrating wars and plundering the poor and even controlling where they can be buried if they were current on their tithes and offerings."

"This is why the abomination of what was once My Church is crumbling in ruins, and Evangelicals and so called non-denominational churches, around the world are being exposed for their greed and wicked worldly ways."

Feeding off the little ones who plow the ground, plant the seed, harvest the fruit of their labors and then give the proceeds to men who live like kings but stink of hellfire and brimstone, their ultimate destination.

Even as I have said it before, "The teachers of the law and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. So, you must be careful to do everything they tell you. But do not do what they do, for they do not practice what they preach. They tie up heavy, cumbersome loads and put them on other people's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them. "Everything they do is done for people to see; they love the place of honor at banquets and the most important seats in the synagogues; they love to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces and to be called 'Rabbi' by others. The greatest among you will be your servant. For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted. "Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to. You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when you have succeeded, you make them twice as much a child of hell as you are." That's in Matthew, chapter 23.

Threatened With Eviction From Our Land

May the Lord bless you with steadfastness and joy in your souls, as we know that His return is near. Amen. Well, being threatened with eviction on the property that we paid $10,000 for and built several buildings on and the situation is complicated because the owner of the land is faster way and his son is now in charge and I didn't have things in writing the way I should have and I didn't even know that I had to have them in writing. I figured we settle things out later because he gave us permission to build the little private chapel and up on the hill, our other hermitage.

So we had permission to build from him. So what was done was done in good faith. He was alive during the time we were building. He supplied the lumber to us. We bought our lumber from him and he seemed to be happy with the situation. Well, the one thing I didn't know is that I had to have everything in writing. And that was a little shady. It took two years before the contract was given to me to sign. He had the money, but it wasn't signed yet. And he did his own survey on the property. Now, mind you, this is not anything I know anything about. I'm total ignoramus when it comes to this. Although, I'm getting a lesson now. He walked off the space that we were buying from him. The acreage that we were buying from him, and he marked it down on the deed, and we thought everything was good.

Well, come to find out that the surveyor found a marker someplace that had been overlooked by the owner. And so when the surveyor came in and he started figuring out where things were, he came back and told us that the property that it belonged to us that we had built on was the quarter of the building of the commons and that none of the hermitages were on our land. Well, I was kind of shocked about that.

I had a good relationship with the man who sold us the property, but there were a lot of misunderstandings about the agreement that I had with them and not having it on paper caused me to look like a bad guy. Even though we were paying like $1,800 a month for rent for the areas that Rutilio, the landowner, had supplied lumber for us to build on, we were paying rent on it to make up for our indiscretion of not having the right kind of survey. And then we signed a contract that gave us for a year or so to be paying rent on the property until we could arrange the purchase.

Well, as you all we have quite a few witches in Taos and some of them happen to be in the county government, of course, and they really want to come after us and cut us to shreds, take the land away with the buildings that we built unless we come up with an exorbitant amount of money. I'm just outrageous. in two short months, and we're getting to the end of that period, like $45,000 in back pay immediately, and then raising the rent to $5,000 a month, which that's what we used to give to the poor, to buy them tires and to pay for food, medical bills and everything that the poor need up here and there are a lot of poor people. That's a lot of money for us. Don't know how we could even survive doing that. But the first thing is that they want $45,000 in front of this whole situation and this land isn't even worth that. It's undeveloped land in the wilderness, eight acres, and that's nowhere near the purchase price.

So, we even have to pay for the land we built on because the land that was marked out by the Father has nothing to do with where our buildings are. It's really, really a rough situation, guys, and they're wanting to evict us. And of course, you know our hermitages are here, the community is here, the community house is here, the roads are improved. We've done so much to improve the land, but we still have some work to do to bring some of the buildings up to code. When I bought the land, all I was told is that, because we were raising sheep at the time, that we wouldn't have any problem with zoning. We had a horses, sheep, goats, chickens, and basically it was zoned in that kind of way. But then it turns out that the zoning laws are different. We're not sure of our status except that we do have to improve the buildings. And our Franciscan way of life, dear ones, we live a very primitive life up here. We use the house and we carry our water. It's not anything like living on a county road where you have all those services brought to you. So we've invested a great deal in the electricity, the plumbing, to bring water down from the well and they just want to evict us unless we come up with $45,000 and $5,000 a month rent, which is just absolutely unbelievable, because we also have to make improvements in the buildings. We're talking about a lot of money here, even after we come up with the major payment, if we can. But the Lord has told me he's going to take care of this. He has a remedy for this problem. He's going to take care of it.

This land is consecrated to God, and He is not going to allow it to be taken away from us after all that we've done here, and that the people we're dealing with are very unscrupulous, to say the least. So, my dear ones, I'm laying this at your feet and I'm asking you to pray for us. I'm trying to keep a level head and keep going with the messages and music, and it's difficult with this kind of stress hanging over my head, but the good news is I know that the Lord put us here for His reasons, and it's His will, and we are in His will, and He will cover for us, no matter what it takes. We just don't know where it's going to come from at this point. Well, it's going to come from Him, obviously.

So, I'm sharing this with you and asking you to please pray, please pray, and pray for me that my mind will be able to be steady on the messages and the music, the things that Lord is wanting to do. We just discovered a new kind of demon today and it's a demon of disheartening, to dishearten people. And I wondered what in the world is this thing that keeps bugging me? where I go to do something and all of a sudden I lose all motivation, or I sit down to record and I hit glitch after glitch after glitch, and I have to wait until the next day to work out all the glitches so I can just record what in the world is going on here. We're praying our binding prayer and we're praying against the opposition, But obviously the Lord is allowing some things, and I'll tell you guys, it has been so, so frustrating and hard. Starting with, I think, back in November when we got the new computer, and that was nothing but trouble from start to finish, and thank God now I'm on the old computer that we managed to get running and everything works seamlessly on it.

So, I'm warning you there is a spirit of discouragement and disheartening. Maybe you want to call it a spirit of opposition and delay. I love Jennifer LeClaire. I listen to her every day. She's wonderful! She is spot-on with warning prayers for the new thing that's been released by the demonic empire. She is so spot-on. I encourage you all to listen to her every day. She does an amazing job. And also, Kevin Zadai. He has been taken to heaven and the Lord has spoken to him many times about the things that are in heaven, and it's beautiful. There's so much clarity to the things that he recounts about the way things are done in heaven. I highly recommend you give them a listen, both of them.

So, getting back to our situation, to sum it all up. We've improved the roads, the property. We have, I think, seven hermitages and goat shed and storage facilities and that kind of thing. For 25 years now we've owned this property and they want to take it away from us unless we come up with this exorbitant amount of money. When we bought it, we had paid for several acres, but in order to get wood to build on, we had to give up some of the acres to get wood so we could build the houses.

I know you guys will pray for us. I appreciate it that you do. And pray that the person that has been appointed by God or persons who have been appointed by God to save us in this situation, pray that they will be quickened in their spirit to know what they are to do and that they will be willing. I just can't imagine us leading this mountain, guys. Everyone is so happy up here and they go into town it's such an environment that come back frazzled and they're so glad to be back here. Also some of our old heart dwellers who have gone out on missions are coming back to the mountain so we'll be working with them which is lovely and our little family from Japan has returned to Japan to straighten out issues there so they can migrate to the United States. We have been blessed with some wonderful people, I have to say, so wonderful, so honest, industrious, loving, and devoted to the Lord. And they've made this all possible. We are so grateful, just so grateful.

So, please keep in your prayers and keep the situation in your prayers as well. And pray that I won't get discouraged. Please, that I'll really be able to work hard on the messages, because I have several know that I haven't been recording. I'm going to work on that tonight. Keep me in the saddle with your prayers, guys, please.

Well, I bless you all in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. May He give you the strength, integrity, and courage that you need to navigate through the days ahead. Love you all. Thank you for listening, praying for us and supporting. Thank you so very much. You give us tremendous hope.

Global Crisis or the Peace of Jesus
4.23.25

"Jesus, clothe us in Your peace. Thank You, Lord." Beloved Family, if we have Jesus, we have everything. He is our Protector, Supplier, and Peace that floats above the turbulent waters of this earth. Therefore, let us remain with Him in the boat, no matter how choppy the waters get.

The Lord began, "I can feel your fear and insecurity clear. That's not the place I want you to be. I want you to radiate peace and complete unequivocal trust in My provision for you and the community. I am the one doing this, and you will not end up in another house. That is just not My plan. You will not end up on other properties, and you will not end up having to move. That is not My plan at all. Rest assured, you will be safe here because I need you to continue to put out instruction and messages for My people. I cannot give you all the details, beloved. Let's move on to your turf and what pertains to you and the community. I can hear your thoughts about the land. You are not in danger."

I went to the Bible promises and I got the second page of enemies. "Do not be afraid of fear that comes all at once. Do not be afraid of the storm, of the sinful. When it comes, those who fight against you will be as nothing."

"Thank you, Lord, for steadying my hand, my heart and my mind."

"I want you to walk in confidence that you are covered in every possible way. All that is left is prayer. Clare?"

"Yes, Lord?"

"Trust me."

"Okay."

"Great turbulence is about to begin in your country, and in all the countries of the world, remain steadfast and faithful. Nothing will harm you because you are grounded in me. Stay grounded. The devil is trying to unseat you through fear. Pay no attention to him. Rivet your heart on mine and you will be secure indeed. Your country is headed towards a severe and sudden crisis which cannot be avoided. Stand in Me. Global chaos will not touch those who have abandoned themselves to me. You are informed and ready for this, whether you feel like it or not."

"Thank you, Jesus. Please help me feel this way."

And He replied, "Worship, worship, worship."

And I remember, we bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the Lord. That's a wonderful song. And praise is definitely a sacrifice when you feel gloomy. But every day, He cheers me up and consoles me, telling me He's got this with the community and with the land. And I rest my case. I rest in him. He's got it. We're following His counsel and praying. "Dear God, help me to pray more with greater depth and sincerity, and especially for those who really need our prayers right now, especially in the Middle East, Lord, and the hostages. I pray for their peace. I know you can put peace in their hearts. And I pray for wisdom for the heads of state and heads of countries, wisdom and restraint. I thank You, Lord, for hearing my prayer and my dear ones I highly recommend that you pray in tongues at least an hour a day or pray in segments. I'll be doing one thing and I'll pray in the Spirit then I'll go be doing another thing and pray in the Spirit then I'll come into regular formal prayer and I'll pray in the Spirit and it's a very powerful, extremely powerful, and I definitely feel a peace that passes all understanding after I've prayed in tongues.

So, please avail yourself to this beautiful gift the Lord has given us so that we can with our own voice in our own mouth declare the prayers that the Lord wants spoken. There is no more perfect prayer than tongues. Although I do feel the anointing on the prayer of the heart and prayer with tears, when the Lord really captivates your heart with a problem And you just fill out all over in prayer with tears, travailing prayer. That is also so powerful. But whenever you feel threatened at all, praying in tongues is a wonderful weapon to shut it down, because the enemy is always trying to steal our peace. And it's up to us to maintain it and not let him get away with it.

I love you, dear Heart Dwellers. I'm so proud of you, enduring through all of this. The time has come for us to really rise up in prayer, to really pray against the demonic and the nations and in the world, safeguard our family and the heads of state that carry such enormous emotional loads, being responsible for millions of people. So, let's say in prayer, "I know that the Lord has heard us." Like Padre Pio says, "Pray and don't worry." Amen . God bless you.

Self Righteousness 4.24.25

Lord, please teach us your ways of love, hope, and respect for the little ones, the broken, and those who are not chosen, not wanted, not loved, but set aside. Amen.

My dear family, coming to serve the Lord requires a life of sacrifice, because things on this earth will never be perfect as they are in heaven. So, we must continually adjust our expectations to accommodate the Lord's heart for the poor and disadvantaged. Some folks who come here from a different culture, such as Europe, Australia, or the Orient, had a good upbringing with intelligent and caring parents. They see the world from their tidy little middle class perspective and can be critical and scandalized by the rough lifestyle we embrace with lady poverty.

Jesus was always looking after the poor and the broken, those who didn't measure up to the world's standards, the outcasts. He knew their hearts and the many disappointments they suffered from childhood. Jesus did not come in an impressive carriage like kings and princes do. Rather, He came as the low-income carpenter, turned itinerant minister with a ragtag group of men, equally of lowly estate, simple, smelly fishermen who abandoned their nets to live for God alone, and go fishing for men with a messiah. Even Scripture affirms the rights of the poor, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 21:43.

Those of us who grew up in a more privileged circumstance can be critical and judgmental; I ought to know I was one of them and could easily relapse into judging others by their external trappings, clothing, cars, etc. The Lord took me to task very early in my conversion to have a heart for the poor and the disadvantaged. This was a beautiful gift he gave me, reminding me that I could very well have been just like them, and to do for them was to do for him.

We had a visitor one season in the past that had been raised in a very clean and proper culture. Some of the sisters and brothers did not quite measure up to their righteous standards. It just so happened that these brothers and sisters were not all to conscientious middle-class folks. Some of us come from ghettos and poor working class backgrounds. Some are seniors and former alcoholics and drug addicts. This presented many challenges in charity and brotherly love for our visitor, because he was meticulous in his manner, always joining on the spot and first to volunteer. While I have to say, our brothers and sisters sometimes were a little slower. Yet there were very concerning undertones of fault -finding and a lack of flexibility, which especially concerned me when I was cornered with a longer list of extremely petty complaints and suggestions for reform. To be honest, really honest, I was shocked that such little things were offensive to him, and I do mean genuinely shocked. How could we demonstrate the first century ideal and share brotherly love, which often times comes with sacrifice and a price tag.

The very life of St. Francis teaches us to overlook the failings of others and fill in what they are lacking with deeds of charity and to never seek praise or be offended if falsely accused. Why is this so important you ask?

Because someday God will have to extend His mercy to us for our many many failings which we're blind to, not the very least of which is judging others. Well one night after I'd been presented with a laundry list of our feelings, I collapsed before the Lord, pleading with Him to help me, help them, see things in a new light, the light of the first century Christian community, where everyone held things in common and made up for the shortcomings of others.

I began, "Lord, I'm a little ruffled up here. What do I do?" He answered, "You need to talk to them." I replied, thinking of the push back, "But I didn't want to get into a fight." He answered, "I didn't say to fight. I said to talk and discuss and tell him there is something essential missing in his walk with Me, and at the rate he is going, he will go through life without it."

Then the Lord Jesus addressed him directly, "My son, worship is not cut and dried. It's not about choosing better songs or building healthy lungs, and it's not about showcasing your voice. These had been criticisms of our worship. It is about touching the hem of My garment, an abject poverty of body, soul, and spirit. Do you remember the story of a woman with an issue of blood? She was ritually unclean and shunned by everyone. She knew her state before Me. Those are the very ones the angels rushed to assist, and My heart just melts when they come to Me. Trouble starts when a soul does not see their very own filth, and yet they are keen to point out and correct the faults of others around them."

"Most do not see their own filth, because they have learned to make up for it outwardly by appearing virtuous. They have learned how to impress others with religious observances, while adding to a running inventory of their brother's failures and shortcomings. But on that day they will stand naked before me, with their hearts exposed, and I will have to send them to the fires of purgatory to cleanse them from heaven. I would prefer that souls did not have to pass through that fire. Do you think you are ready to stand before me in righteousness, Do you harbor criticism and bitterness against your brothers and sisters? I live in your heart and I can smell what comes into it as well as what goes out. Do you really think you are qualified to pass judgment on my servants?"

"There are many reasons I brought you hear, not the least of which is to learn about brotherly love, compassion and selflessness, never making note of one another's faults, but always finding a way to assist and elevate them in dignity. Here we do not look for an acknowledgment or pout on the back when one has extended themselves on behalf of others who are not so well equipped for life. Every gift you have came from Me. Every advantage you have was arranged by Me. If I remove those qualities from your life, where do you think you would stand? It is a grave offense of pride to compare yourself to others. You know nothing about who they really are and where they came from, nor do you know their struggles and heartaches. Some were crack babies, children of prostitutes, mentally challenged, or former alcoholics and addicts. As you mature and discover more about yourself, you will gladly seek out the lowest place and never raise your eyes to examine another's worthiness."

"So, many religious people go through a very serious shock when they see how I weigh them in the balance, not on the world scales, but on mine. I do not say these things to hurt you. I say them so you will not be accused of the sin of self-righteousness, which carries a very severe sentence. Why? Because your thoughts and actions degraded and weakened my children who are already struggling against crushing guilt and self-condemnation. You do not have to say it. Their spirit already knows it. Yes, by your fault -finding you assist the accusers team."

"I love you tenderly and unconditionally, and I will always be by your side. Your perfection is the work of My spirit, and I give greater gifts to those who recognize themselves as of no account. That is the safest place for all of you, and when I see you standing in line as the last one to be seated, I rejoice and call you up higher."

May God give us the graces to walk in wisdom and charity, dear ones. Amen. I was walking from one room to another, questioning modern tech and how it could be manipulated to control thoughts and desires. I heard the Lord say they are altering the YouTubes electronically. I thought to myself, "Am I hearing you, Lord?"

Without hesitation, He said, "You heard Me right. They are enhancing the YouTubes electronically to keep you happily occupied and distracted, so you will waste the potentially wisest years of your life being lulled into a foggy gray haze, readying you for a nursing home. I am not going to allow that to happen if you cleave to Me, but you must cooperate, call on Me in your weakness, and I will pull up the slack in you. And believe Me, there's plenty of it."

"Uh -oh," I said.

"It's not all together your fault." He continued, "It is partly your age, how you've been conditioned as a child, left at home in front of a TV set, 24 /7 for decades, even then you were being programmed. Clare, it is a wonder and a work of pure grace that you are where you are now. A case in point. Do you remember when a friend made dinner to honor your mother and she was deeply upset because she would miss her favorite show? "

Yeah, I remember that.....awkward. She had an addiction and couldn't bear the thought of missing an episode of her favorite show. Let me tell you, I've got an addiction to YouTubes for sure, and they are making them so enticing these days. Wonderful, homey stories of acts of virtue and forming in people's minds who these political characters are according to these little vignettes, which actually last over an hour, and I love them, but it is a waste of time, and I've finally come to terms with that. It's not part of my mission to be learning about those things.

"Okay, so moving on. As age increases, most people regress, going back to the activities of their formative years, much like your mother did, feeding on TV shows, magazines, and newspapers, which have been replaced by cell phones and computers. The advances in technology are out of this world, most literally. Beloved, this is the time of My coming, only a few more hours, and any day now. But I have given you much to do, so that at My coming you will be alert and busy bringing in the harvest. O how I love you, And oh, how I suffer with you, for the lost dreams and unfinished songs."

"But understand this, that is not license for you to have a pity party and repeat the devil's narrative. Look at Marilyn Hickey, she thought mystery was mostly over for her. But look, young Muslims are laying down their arms at her gatherings and giving themselves to me. Keep working. Finish the songs. Keep writing honest narratives about your faults and challenges. I promise you, they will hit their mark, their intended audiences, in my perfect time. All those years Marilyn prayed faithfully for the Muslims, because I asked her to. But she saw no change. She kept obeying me with prayers, and I filled Heaven's warehouses with those graces to be released at the right time. My bride, you do not always pray in a conventional way. But when Your heart leaps up in pain over the plight of the oppressed. My Father in Heaven hears you loud and clear, and He answers. You may not see the results now, but someday you will see and not be able to comprehend how we touched all those souls. It will shock you, literally. You will say, "Oh no, where did all these come from? There must be some mistake. I don't know who they are." Then at that time the angels will come forth and remind you of your sufferings and very obscure but genuine prayers of your entire lifetime. Yes, There is a heart in there."

"But Jesus, I often feel that I haven't got a heart, but I realize part of that is a medication for fibro-pain because when I forget to take it, my emotions for the plight of others are substantially moved."

He continued, "Yes, there is a heart inside of you, that loves my people, but it is battered and bruised by indifference and betrayals, just like mine. I am not saying that you are perfectly selfless. You and I are working on that, but I am telling you that by your obedience to Me, you have done much more good than you know. So please, be encouraged, My faithful bride."

"Oh, thank you, Lord, for a status update. I needed to hear that. I need courage and resolve to go on."

He continued, "The agenda of Satan is to discourage and separate you from Me by convincing you that you are a failure. They pelt you with lies 24 /7. Now that you recognize these tactics, be engaged in fighting the lies and clinging to Me, so My love can permeate and saturate your being, where you can then pour it out on the lost in angry, misinformed souls."

"Lord, when you said misinformed souls, I thought of the reported scene on the last words at Anton Lavey's deathbed" With his last breath, he was calling out, saying something like, "No, there must be some mistake. It's not supposed to happen this way. Oh no, oh no, what have I done?" Whether these were exactly his last words is debatable, but it confirms to me the tragic ending of a life lived rejecting God and everything Christians stand for, but rarely are able to live perfectly. So many of us have been wounded and rejected by the ones who call themselves Christians. There goes that self-righteousness again, and the upstanding members of society. The irony of this is that Satan inspired these acts to hurt the innocent, and now when the innocent grow up battered and bruised, He proposes that you work for Him to get back at these phony Christians, so we can be duped into serving the very source of evil that crushed us in the first place. One can only hope for God's mercy, for those who live a life of deceit, tormenting and destroying, and teaching others to do the same.

O my dear Satanists, it is not too late to consider that you may have been deceived by your lust for power and revenge. The Lord did indeed have you in mind when He gave His body up to be crucified in payment for the sins you would commit later, because He wanted you in heaven with Him for eternity. His love knows no boundaries and will never run short for you. It's not too late for you. He's praying that your blindness be removed and you receive the love that has been waiting for you. Love that cures the injuries of the past that heals broken hearts and restores life to your spirit, soul, and body. Reflect on the choices you've made in your life, reflect on them, seeing that behind this desire for power is deep hurt, rejection, betrayal, and human failure to love. Yes, the desire to be loved, honored, recognized for who you truly are and what you're truly worth, is at the very core of every human being, and when we don't get that, Satan offers us power, acceptance, relevance, and a way to get back at those who cheated you in life. When you succeed, He rewards your flesh. When you fail, He beats you mercilessly, or takes something precious away from you.

When I fail as a servant of God, I do have a holy fear of the consequences, but 99 % of the time He forgives me takes my hand to raise me up and gives me the grace to succeed next time. He is compassionate and gentle. He knows we are weak, and He is always here to help. It's your choice to make, and He will save you from the retribution of the covenants. He prays, He waits, and He hopes for you.
