Transport Co. took over, he was employed as a teamster, around 1900. By 1910, Patrick Murphy, along with his sons Moses and Patrick, Jr., and probably his brother, Robert, operated the store on the northeast corner of Division and Water Streets (ERI-1562). The Murphy brothers took over operation of the store from Frank Reinheimer, however, ownership of the building remained in the hands of Mrs. Henry Kelley. The Murphys operated this store until 1927 when they sold to Joseph Matso. Patrick Murphy was also the Post Master from 1914 to 1915. This house was later occupied by John and Catherine Betzenheimer. John was a locomotive engineer in the KI.&T Co. quarry.
