DESCRIPTION: The American Mark II is a nice economy bow. It has a comfortable grip, and is an accurate shooter. This bow is still in very good condition. It has no delamination; no cracks; limbs are straight. Tips are in great condition. No drilled holes; No chips, dings or cracks. No stress lines or crazing. A few minor scratches and nicks here and there. Some minor discoloration of the brown limbs. Decals are in excellent condition. Overall, this is a really nice bow in excellent condition for its age.

A close-up photograph of a violin's body, showing the wood grain and a glossy finish. The body is curved and tapers towards the bottom. There are some small dark spots and a larger dark mark on the wood. The background is a blurred, textured surface.
