7. Artwork is left on a voluntary basis, with no promise of compensation.
8. The WAS will provide a title card for each piece of art, which will state: the title of the art, size, medium, artist name, price and WAS contact phone number. A book with artist bios and list of the art will be available in the Gallery. Your one page bio, should be up to date and provided; you may opt to include your business cards/ post cards/brochures for display. Optional: web address and or email may be included at your discretion .
9. Artwork may be available for sale. Inquiries about purchases will go to the Wellington Art Society and the artist will negotiate the final sale. The artist agrees that 20% commission on any sale will be paid to the WAS by the artist. If a piece of art is sold before the 3 or 4 month period ends, it will either stay hanging or be replaced by a comparable piece.

Up to 4 pieces of art may be submitted online. Please fill out the following Agreement Form, provide details for each piece and upload a photo of each piece to the completed form. Please provide artist bio.

There is no change to the previous conditions for the exhibitions at the Wellington City Hall and Wellington Community Center. The only change is the ability to submit your exhibition agreement online and upload the photos of your artwork. If you need to print and mail your application, please contact Susan Mosely 561-255-9112 to alert her of your submission. Otherwise, we look forward to receiving your exhibition agreement and photos online.
