MUSIC EDUCATION JOURNEY

Buenos Aires, Argentina has an elegant, old-worldly feel, with a touch of Paris here and of London there, a dash of New York cosmopolitanism and Italian exuberance. Here, everything is grand, on a scale fit for kings. Buenos Aires is known for its European-style architecture and rich cultural life. Santiago de Chile is one of the most developed cities in South America, combining an urban environment that artfully unites classic and modern architecture.

Program Highlights

- 7 nights / 9-days journey through Argentina & Chile
- Interact with music experts from a variety of locations, backgrounds, and musical influences throughout both countries as you learn about the arts, education, and cultural similarities and differences between our countries.

Professional Interaction

- Meet with music teachers from a variety of settings in Buenos Aires and Santiago including a special music school for the underprivileged outside of Buenos Aires where you will spend the day with faculty and students.
- Explore the similarities and differences between music education (pre-K through collegiate) in both countries and the United States while establishing ongoing communication and collaboration.
- Focus on music education curriculum, access to band and choral classes in school, and exchange knowledge with your counterparts. Interact with educators and students in various academic settings.

Focus on the Community

- Spend time with staff at Fundación Origen to learn about their fantastic non-profit aiding children in Chile.
- Talk to the people you pass on the street. You'll be delighted at how open to conversation the locals are, and you may surprise yourself with the new impressions formed.

Program Leader: Lynn Brinckmeyer | Professor, Texas State University

Lynn is the former president of the National Association for Music Education (formerly MENC) and a seasoned group leader.

- Professor of Music & Director of Choral Music Education, Texas State University
- Director, Texas State Women's Choir
- Director and Co-founder, Hill Country Youth Chorus
