Good Monday Crusaders!

Just a simple message today...I am so happy to hear all the good things that our 6th-8th grade students experienced while on their field trip to the California Science Center in Los Angeles. As I stated at the Parent Club meeting last week, giving our students every opportunity to experience their classroom teachings in real life experiences is fulfilling a part of our mission. Thank you to Mrs. O'Connor and Mr. Pereira for leading this field trip and truly giving so much of their time and energy to bring great things to our community.

Also, we have a few major items happening over the next couple of weeks:

- 1. Don't forget to RSVP for SRM's Harvest Festival happening 10/25 6:00-8:00 p.m.
- 2. We are having our "Walking Rosary" on 10/24 and all our welcome to join
- 3. We are collecting a bag of candy from each family from now till 10/25 for our "Saints Day parade" being held on Nov. 1st.
- 4. Please sell those "PANCAKE BREAKFAST TICKETS" for the event on November 3rd. Unsold tickets are due to the office by 10/31. This is another wonderful event that our community truly enjoys and we cannot do it without you! Sign-ups for shifts are still open and you can check out the supply list that still has items that need to be donated so the event can go on without a hitch! Let's make this "tasty event" one to remember!

Wishing you the best this week, and it is another short one that we all get to enjoy Friday off...

Blessings,

Mrs. Hodges
