

IF YOU DIED TODAY
ARE YOU 100%
SURE OF HEAVEN?

The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he (John 4:25-26)

There are Jews who believe in the Messiah who came, and there are Jews who believe in the Messiah to come. Jews in general do not believe that Jesus Christ, the man who was crucified as recorded in religious and secular history books, was God in the form of man, the Messiah to be sacrificed for our sins. Instead, they are still looking for a king—for the Jews would hardly be willing to reduce their god to a lamb bleeding on a lowly cross.

Regardless of what these Jews say, Jesus Christ not only died on the cross, but he was risen again and has power over death. Jesus Christ made it possible for us to go to heaven after we die. The Messiah then was (and still is) a king, but he is also a sacrificial lamb that went dumb to his killing, humble and without question or rebuke. For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life (John 3:16).

The only requirement God gave us to be saved from hell is to accept Christ as our savior. In doing so all it takes is realizing that you are a sinner and you can not save yourself by your good works, and then asking Christ to save you, The work he did on the cross was enough to wash all of our sins away as he is quoted as having said "It is finished," right before he died. Simply say a payer like the one on the reverse here and ask Christ to save you, believing it in your heart.

IF YOU DIED TODAY
ARE YOU 100%
SURE OF HEAVEN?

The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he (John 4:25-26)

There are Jews who believe in the Messiah who came, and there are Jews who believe in the Messiah to come. Jews in general do not believe that Jesus Christ, the man who was crucified as recorded in religious and secular history books, was God in the form of man, the Messiah to be sacrificed for our sins. Instead, they are still looking for a king—for the Jews would hardly be willing to reduce their god to a lamb bleeding on a lowly cross.

Regardless of what these Jews say, Jesus Christ not only died on the cross, but he was risen again and has power over death. Jesus Christ made it possible for us to go to heaven after we die. The Messiah then was (and still is) a king, but he is also a sacrificial lamb that went dumb to his killing, humble and without question or rebuke. For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life (John 3:16).

The only requirement God gave us to be saved from hell is to accept Christ as our savior. In doing so all it takes is realizing that you are a sinner and you can not save yourself by your good works, and then asking Christ to save you, The work he did on the cross was enough to wash all of our sins away as he is quoted as having said "It is finished," right before he died. Simply say a payer like the one on the reverse here and ask Christ to save you, believing it in your heart.

IF YOU DIED TODAY
ARE YOU 100%
SURE OF HEAVEN?

The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he (John 4:25-26)

There are Jews who believe in the Messiah who came, and there are Jews who believe in the Messiah to come. Jews in general do not believe that Jesus Christ, the man who was crucified as recorded in religious and secular history books, was God in the form of man, the Messiah to be sacrificed for our sins. Instead, they are still looking for a king—for the Jews would hardly be willing to reduce their god to a lamb bleeding on a lowly cross.

Regardless of what these Jews say, Jesus Christ not only died on the cross, but he was risen again and has power over death. Jesus Christ made it possible for us to go to heaven after we die. The Messiah then was (and still is) a king, but he is also a sacrificial lamb that went dumb to his killing, humble and without question or rebuke. For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life (John 3:16).

The only requirement God gave us to be saved from hell is to accept Christ as our savior. In doing so all it takes is realizing that you are a sinner and you can not save yourself by your good works, and then asking Christ to save you, The work he did on the cross was enough to wash all of our sins away as he is quoted as having said "It is finished," right before he died. Simply say a payer like the one on the reverse here and ask Christ to save you, believing it in your heart.

IF YOU DIED TODAY
ARE YOU 100%
SURE OF HEAVEN?

The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he (John 4:25-26)

There are Jews who believe in the Messiah who came, and there are Jews who believe in the Messiah to come. Jews in general do not believe that Jesus Christ, the man who was crucified as recorded in religious and secular history books, was God in the form of man, the Messiah to be sacrificed for our sins. Instead, they are still looking for a king—for the Jews would hardly be willing to reduce their god to a lamb bleeding on a lowly cross.

Regardless of what these Jews say, Jesus Christ not only died on the cross, but he was risen again and has power over death. Jesus Christ made it possible for us to go to heaven after we die. The Messiah then was (and still is) a king, but he is also a sacrificial lamb that went dumb to his killing, humble and without question or rebuke. For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life (John 3:16).

The only requirement God gave us to be saved from hell is to accept Christ as our savior. In doing so all it takes is realizing that you are a sinner and you can not save yourself by your good works, and then asking Christ to save you, The work he did on the cross was enough to wash all of our sins away as he is quoted as having said "It is finished," right before he died. Simply say a payer like the one on the reverse here and ask Christ to save you, believing it in your heart.