

Magic

Looking for Magic in everything
Creates the sparkle, the Truth
Like emerald greens swaying in the winds
Shimmering stones beneath me
Move me to where I need to be
The bird's song guides my subconscious
And whispers secrets of all that is.
Swirling colors that dance and sing
Resonate... amplify... all that is within
My day is here, my truth has come
I AM all that I AM. I AM all and One.
From pebbles on the beach, to the center of the sun
I magnify this great universe. I give. I receive.
We love each other... unconditionally
In a blink and with ease, my work is done.
Joyful... Peaceful... Pleasurable fun
Engaging in the knowing and letting it lead.
From these tethers... these chains, I AM freed
Now I fly. Now I see. Now I flow... infinitely.
Through these vibrations... patiently
Unfolding the Gifts... the Gems that I AM
I give all to you... my family, my friends
Take them... hold them deep within
It is your light as your Journey begins.
