

NERO d'AVOLA

Nero d' Avola is considered the most important & widely planted red wine grape in Sicily & is one of Italy's most indigenous varieties. The dark-skinned grape is of great historical importance to Sicily & it's been grown & produced for centuries. Nero d' Avola is known in France as "le vin medicine"

This grape is full-bodied & rich with velvet seduction & mystery...like my Sicilian mama!