Commission to publish commemorative book

BEDFORD — The Lawrence County Bicentennial Commission, Lawrence County Museum and MT Publishing Co., Inc. have joined forces to create a new photographic history book in celebration of Lawrence County's 2018 Bicentennial.

The Bicentennial Commission and the Lawrence County Museum of History ask citizens of Lawrence County to submit historical photographs or information relating to Lawrence County between 1818-2018 including: agriculture, buildings, businesses, churches, disasters, organizations, events, activities, military, local post cards, old maps, families (ancestors, pioneers), legends and lore, schools, and transportation.

The goal of the commemorative hard-backed book is to share hundreds of historic and significant facts and photos from Lawrence County's past and present.

To accomplish this goal, the commission and museum ask for input and submissions from Lawrence Countians far and near to tell their stories photographically. Please consider sharing photos at work, play, worship or other gatherings of significant interest.

Scheduled to be released in summer 2019, the book will be a large 11-by-8½-inch coffee-table-style edition with a deluxe full-color, hard-bound cover featuring a minimum of 104 glossy pages, allowing for superior photo reproduction.

In addition to asking for community participation, organizers ask the community for support by reserving a copy now at the special pre-publication price of only $37.50. Because there will be a limited number of copies printed, interested parties are encouraged to place their orders now.

Patron pages are being sold for inclusion in this historical publication. Include the history of your business, church or organization and sponsor the Lawrence County Bicentennial by purchasing a patron page. Full pages are being offered for $500 for color or $240 for black & white. Half pages can be purchased for $400 for color or $195 for black & white. A full-page patron purchase—black & white or color—includes a complimentary copy of the book. Preorder and patron deadline is July 31, 2018.

To order, complete the order form, available for download on the Lawrence County Bicentennial Facebook page or receive printed copies by visiting the Lawrence County Museum of History, 929 15th St. or StoneGate Arts & Education Center North, 405 I St., Bedford.

Those interested also can place orders with a credit card online at mtpublishing.com — or by calling the company toll free at (888) 263-4702.
