

Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education President Mark A. Cunningham, center, presented the President's Award of Excellence for Outstanding Law-Related Education to teachers Ann Majeste, left, and Camile Gautreaux. Photo by Matthew Hinton Photography.

Two outstanding Louisiana teachers received the Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education (LCLCE)/Louisiana State Bar Association President's Award of Excellence for Outstanding Law-Related Education during the LSBA's Midyear Meeting reception in January 2012. LCLCE President Mark A. Cunningham presented the award to Ann Majeste and Camile Gautreaux. Majeste is a teacher at A.C. Alexander Elementary School in Kenner. Gautreaux is a teacher at St. Jude the Apostle School in Baton Rouge. Each teacher received a plaque and funds to purchase law-related education materials for their classrooms. The annual award recognizes elementary, middle or high school teachers who impart knowledge and understanding of law and civic education and demonstrate the use of interactive learning techniques that make a difference in student learning.