Santiago de Chile is one of the most developed cities in South America, combining an urban environment that artfully unites classic and modern architecture. Buenos Aires, Argentina has an elegant, old-worldly feel, with a touch of Paris here and of London there, a dash of New York cosmopolitanism and Italian exuberance. Here, everything is grand, on a scale fit for kings. Buenos Aires is known for its European-style architecture and rich cultural life.

Program Highlights

- 7-night (9 day) journey through Chile and Argentina
- Visit & explore healthcare facilities and programs; explore and compare Chilean & Argentine culture; and meet and interact with citizens of both nations.

Professional Interaction

- Learn about health care systems in both countries and explore challenges in the coordination of health care delivery while observing the type of healthcare provided for citizens across the lifespan.
- Interact with professional experts and local citizens to learn about both Chile's and Argentina's health care delivery system; approach to the provision of health care to their citizens across the lifespan, including care of the elderly, mental health, and control of vector borne diseases.

Focus on Community & Culture
