

Oh, Amelia

Oh, Amelia
Cradled in my arms
Rest peacefully now
Sheltered from all harm

Eyes so bright
Conscious so clear
Oh, Amelia
Your smile is so dear

Oh, Amelia
If you only knew
The life that lay ahead
All the things that you will do

Hold on to me
Your mother and me
Oh, Amelia
You can trust us, you'll see

Live your life with a vengeance
Live your life with joy
Become a good woman
Find you a good boy

Oh Amelia
It's getting late
You need to go to sleep
Your dreams await

Your tiny heartbeat
So steady and true
Oh, Amelia
So perfect and new

Live your life with a vengeance
Live your life with joy
Become a good woman
Find you a good boy

Oh, Amelia
You've got nothing but time
Oh, Amelia
You've got nothing but time
