

South Brunswick High School JROTC Air Rifle Team Competes in National Competition

On December 17, 2017, the Orion Marksmanship competition concluded. 114 Teams from 36 states competed in the Sporter category. South Brunswick High School JROTC Air Rifle team, sponsored by the Department of North Carolina St. James American Legion Post 543, competed against teams from: Oregon, Colorado, Missouri, South Carolina, Arizona and Kentucky and finished 4th in its Division. Nationally, with an average of 1048.57 the Cougar team finished 16th in the Nation. In January, the team will compete in the American Legion National Competition Air Rifle Postal Match. The team is coached by LTC (Retired) Tom Blue and LTC (Retired) Gary Crowden. Both colonels are members of the St. James American Legion Post 543.