

Lawrence, Terry A.

Terry A. Lawrence, 52, of Blairsville, Ga. passed away Sunday, Jan. 4, 2009 in Blairsville, Ga. He was born in Pontiac June 7, 1956, to Jerry G. and Marian A. Lawrence.

He graduated from Rochester Adams High School. His childhood interests were Boy Scouts, hockey, football, and sailing. He attended West Palm Beach Community College and graduated from Florida Atlantic University as a geologist. He was president of Alliance Consulting and Environmental Services, Inc. He had several degrees and certificates throughout his career, including an associate's in arts; associate's in marine biology, and a master's in geology. Terry enjoyed everything in the outdoors. Most of his life was spent outside, appreciating nature. He is survived by his wife, Michele; son, Andrew; a brother, Thomas A.; and his parents, Jerry and Marian.

The family has requested memorial contributions be directed to Leader Dogs for the Blind, Rochester.

Arrangements entrusted to Cochran Funeral Home - Blairsville Chapel. Friends may send condolences to the family and sign the guest register at www.cochranfuneralhomes.com.