

Chapter 52

For Everything There Is A Season

BIBLE

COMMENTARY

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven.<sup>1</sup> So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen.<sup>2</sup>

They are amazed. They answer no more. They don't have a word to say.<sup>3</sup> The mirth of tambourines ceases. The sound of those who rejoice ends. The joy of the harp ceases.<sup>4</sup>

They will roar together like young lions. They will growl as lions' cubs.<sup>5</sup> But to the land to which their soul longs to return, there they will not return.<sup>6</sup>

They will not drink wine with a song. Strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it.<sup>7</sup> They pluck salt herbs by the bushes. The roots of the broom tree are their food.<sup>8</sup>

For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, "He has a demon."<sup>9</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Ecclesiastes 3:1 The Abbey Road recording sessions would be the last time the four Beatles would work together as a unit. Many factors led to their breakup, but basically things had simply run their course.

<sup>2</sup> Matthew 20:16 Abbey Road was the last album the Beatles recorded, but not the last album they released. Let It Be was recorded first, but released after Abbey Road. So the last was first, and the first was last.

<sup>3</sup> Job 32:15 ["They" are the Beatles] Paul is amazed in "Maybe I'm Amazed," a song from his first solo album that he wrote during the breakup of the band. A tribute to his wife Linda, it describes the unconditional love and support that she was able to give him while he was going through a difficult time. Paul may have been inspired by the classic hymn "Amazing Grace," a tribute to the unconditional love and support that God gives to us.

<sup>6</sup> Jeremiah 22:27

<sup>7</sup> Isaiah 24:9

<sup>8</sup> Job 30:4

<sup>9</sup> Matthew 11:18 John's demon was heroin, which he and Yoko were using during this time.

Another said, “I have married a wife, and therefore I can’t come.”<sup>10</sup> Thus Paul went out from among them.<sup>11</sup>

He said, “Oh, Lord, please send someone else.<sup>12</sup> I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith.<sup>13</sup> I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me.<sup>14</sup>

“Our pursuers are on our necks: We are weary, and have no rest.<sup>15</sup> An end has come, the end has come; it awakes against you; behold, it comes.”<sup>16</sup>

It happened, when the angel of Yahweh spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept.<sup>17</sup>

The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all of the trees of the field are withered; for joy has withered away from the sons of men.<sup>18</sup>

So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.<sup>19</sup> They took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their food, and went their way.<sup>20</sup> When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn’t turn when they went.<sup>21</sup> Everyone went to his own house.<sup>22</sup>

<sup>11</sup> Acts 17:33 The recently married Paul was the first to announce that he was leaving the group, citing “personal differences, business differences, musical differences, but most of all because I have a better time with my family.”

<sup>12</sup> Exodus 6:13 Several of Paul’s songs off Abbey Road allude to a sense of loss and to the problems the Beatles were having. In “You Never Give Me Your Money” he shares: “I break down...nowhere to go...wipe that tear away... soon we’ll be away from here.”

<sup>13</sup> 2 Timothy 4:7 Paul, struggling to keep the band together, laments for better days in “Golden Slumbers”: “Once there was a way to get back home.”

<sup>14</sup> Numbers 11:14 In “Carry That Weight” Paul describes the burden of having to do the heavy lifting for the group as his bandmates were losing interest: “In the middle of the celebrations I break down.”

<sup>16</sup> Ezekiel 7:6 “The End” does indeed come on Abbey Road. It’s the last “official” song on the album.

<sup>18</sup> Joel 1:12 Apple is the name of the Beatles business organization.

<sup>19</sup> 2 Chronicles 15:10

<sup>22</sup> John 7:53
