

RUTH, ESTHER, AMERICA and THE FEAR OF THE LORD

By Rev. Chris Meier

HOLY IS THE NAME OF THE LORD and greatly to be praised. For the Lion of the Tribe of Judah has prevailed. Let God arise and His enemies scatter.

Greetings from the free State of Florida in these United States of America. I am reminded of how the Lord has been speaking to me since this cabal of commie-socialists have been attempting the takeover of America. When I wrote the book “70 Years of American Captivity,” I knew from our Lord that it was a warning— not a prophecy— for a time period yet to come. If we chose wisely as a people, NONE OF US would ever see it come to pass. As I write this article, it looks as if we are lost and that the communists have won. Hold on, saints, for the Lion of the Tribe of Judah will prevail! (See the photo attached to this article. It is a painting from one of our dear sisters in the Lord that she made based on the word of the Lord to her heart.)

In the last article from December 2020, the Lord gave me 2 Corinthians 5:1-15. In the NET Bible, Verse 11 reads, “Therefore, because we know the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade people, but we are well known to God, and I hope we are well known to your consciences too.” As a people, we must hear from God and we must know when we do, that He is speaking and He is faithful to perform what He says He will do. We must also know the saints who speak as well. In times past within our churches, especially those of us who were raised up in prophetic, evangelism-based Pentecostal churches, we knew who spoke the word of the Lord and we were known of each other.

Today’s church Online is not the same. I never make it a habit to view many ministries and churches on YouTube. Why, you might ask? Because I don’t know them. I only view those ministers and ministries which I have a knowledge of the leadership or people within the congregation. I view ministers the Holy Spirit has confirmed to me by the word and the Spirit. Many times I will view such things when they are sent to me by trusted Christian intercessors. Even then, I view it all with a very clear and sharp eye. I don't swallow everything sent to me.

In fact, recently I was quite stunned with what I saw. Since intercessors will send me new words, etc., on my phone, I view it from that platform. So I don't normally get what's next in the queue from sites like YouTube. One day I happened to be on my computer. Because I logged in that way, YouTube gave me more site information and I could see other similar, expressive videos in a very long queue.

I was absolutely flabbergasted. Everyone had a word or a vision. Everyone wanted the "next big word" status and its popularity. This is the problem when we allow unbelievers to host the church. This was not, nor is it the church as I know it, nor is it the proper way to conduct prophetic ministry according to the Bible. As a result, the potential for falsity is great.

In 1 Corinthians we are told meetings with prophetic words should function as one to three, and the others should listen and judge. Tongues and interpretation of tongues is for unbelievers and dreams and visions should, in my opinion, function the same way as receiving a psalm or other words. One or so at a time and limited to one or two. Otherwise, we risk spending the whole meeting with various words that circle us. Instead of celebrate Christ when we come together, we wind up chasing our tails, so to speak. Instead of telling us where we are going for the week ahead and preparing the Body of Christ for things or battles to come, we leave unprepared and unfulfilled because we have moved in chaos instead of Holy Spirit-filled, Godly order.

(See 1 Corinthians 14:1-33. See also the false teaching that uses verses 34-35, to keep women silent in the church so they should not speak. This was a cultural problem in Paul's time as women had no biblical knowledge; and they sat as a Jewish congregation would, with men on one side and women on the other, separated by either a wall or aisle. The order of the meeting was in jeopardy as women would shout questions to their husbands about what was happening in the meeting. Also, being in Corinth, they had to deal with those who were saved from Delphine Temple worship. Prophetic ministry with women blabbering about looked too much like the demonic worship going on in the temple down the road. The problem today is that we have congregations who have used these verses to silence fifty percent of the army of the Lord, thus neutering the army by leaving us weak and same-sexed with little or no diversity, nor versatility for the battle ahead, as well as the need to maintain America for Christ. This desire to keep women as children instead of grown adults stems from male and female brokenness or fear, similar to what Adam displayed the first time he sinned. I mention this now because the problem will become obvious as we read on in this article.)

When we understand the fear of the Lord, we know those who move in the same context. Because of this, we persuade those who don't know Jesus. Because of this, our attention is directed to pleasing God, not man, but we are known to one another as those who please our Lord.

I shared the word in my last article that I received from the Lord of our Kinsman Redeemer coming to redeem us as United States citizens because we have been sold for nothing to a communist cabal.¹ These evil doers are now attempting to sell America to the highest bidder. Many have already gotten their "thirty pieces of silver" and are now in political office. I have already explained in the update to the article from December 2020 that in order for this nation to need a Kinsman Redeemer, one must have the symbolic death of what is the nation's husband or chief defender. President Trump's political future certainly looks dead.

¹ See the December article here < <https://nebula.wsimg.com/4c2686469127b7666fb2ae9cc8512b26?AccessKeyId=D1B765CBBC658EF49FE8&disposition=0&alloworigin=1> >

From the January update: “In our earliest understanding as a nation, the word president means the overseer or head over the eucharist. Over time from the 1600s, it came to mean the executive presider, intercessor between parties. The earliest understanding of the states united, is as a marriage. The president is, in a sense married to the nation and oversees the communion covenant between the states and the people, and as executive over the federal government, upholds and protects us as well as the states.”²

This knowledge of a Kinsman Redeemer comes from the book of Ruth. It is a story where the death of a family line would have meant the death of a nation because Ruth became the mother of Obed, and Obed became the father of Jesse, and Jesse became the father of King David. If a kinsman redeemer had not been willing to rescue Ruth and Naomi, all would have been lost. In fact, David would not have been born. We know Ruth to have lived during the time period of the Judges. She was a Moabite who married an Israelite who died after leaving Israel. She would not leave her mother-in-law, Naomi, desiring to return with her to the land of Israel. By refusing to leave Naomi, she, by all appearances would be giving up the ability to have a husband or family. She makes this declaration to Naomi as the reason why: “And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God: Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ought but death part thee and me” (Ruth 1:16-17).

We know many things within the first chapter surrounding the story of these holy women, but three of those things are integral for the generations after them. One, they lived during the time of the Judges in Israel (v. 1). The book of Judges tells us that during that time period, “In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes” (Judges 21:25). This last verse of the book of Judges reads right into Verse 1 in the book of Ruth. While we could assume they did what they thought was right because no king told them what to do, it seems to be more intense than that. The understanding here is that they did what they thought, not what God thought was right. It was a man-based thought society, not one centered on the word of the Lord.

² Ibid.

Next, or the second thing we know about these women is that they were holy. They did not seek husbands from a land of strangers. Instead of taking the easy road, they returned to the land of Israel because “she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had visited his people in giving them bread” (Ruth 1:6). And lastly, we know that they feared the Lord. Ruth states plainly to Naomi, “thy people shall be my people and thy God my God.”

I mention the book of Esther in the title. Let me weave it in to what is going on in America right now. Many in the church world have developed a habit to do what the world does. In this case, we do what is right in our own eyes. It is a historical reality that each older move of God persecutes the new move of God. This is one of the saddest realities we know of in church history. God is getting ready to move in such a way that we will see many different manifestations of the glory of God; almost making it look like there are many different revivals going on. But in fact, it is one long, end-time revival getting ready to take place. Not only will God use those who have remained faithful, but He is getting ready to raise up a bunch of “nobodies” in the church.

Even typing that is odd to me since we as saints are never nobodies, just brothers and sisters we have not met yet. Nevertheless, many of these folks have been beat up and trashed by the traditional church. They don't seem to fit in. But God is raising them up, not to do to their brothers what was done to them, but to be a blessing and to heal this rift, once and for all. Not everyone will be happy by this reality, but there it is. In fact, I have always maintained and been clear that whatever God is getting ready to do, quite frequently the church resists. But God's voice to the face of the earth is not in silence.

Frequently, what the church refuses to do, the world hears and tries to do it. Unfortunately, not being filled with the Spirit of God, they cannot maintain God's directive. Instead, or quite often, the devil gets in and throws his narrative in the mix. This is what we are seeing now with all these "racial justice" issues. Not one of us born was alive during the civil war. In fact, many Americans want nothing but justice for people. But remember, the social communists need some issue to divide in order to conquer a land. The devil needs humans attacking humans or church people attacking church people to get what he wants. The devil and these commies have taken the true fact of injustice from the issue of slavery, turning it into some kind of campaign now where houses, businesses and people are practically burned at the stake of some "woke" crusade. This is exactly what satan needs to infiltrate America.

You know a pandemic is not about science when there are literally five different medical treatments available to actually cure Rona.³ You know it's not about the science when your civil rights are being removed to force you to wear a mask when the fact is the virus particles are smaller than almost every single mask out there.⁴ You know it's not about the science when you can go to the liquor store, the grocery or Home Depot, but attending a church service inside a parked car in the churches' parking lot gets you arrested and the church shut down.⁵ You know it's not about social justice when rioters can burn down the businesses and homes of the marginalized populations the social justice says they are fighting for without any reprisals, or arrests.

In fact, these same politicians promoting the curtailment of your rights to peaceful living, tell you that they'll pay for any reprisals those rioters might face, even though those riots burn down half a nation.⁶ But when idiots get together and riot inside the workplace of the politicians, all of a sudden the FBI and the National Guard get involved, arresting hundreds. Don't misunderstand me, NO riot should go unpunished. I just feel the reason why someone riots to destroy life and property is irrelevant to the equal execution of arrests. Both groups of rioters should be arrested, regardless of why they riot.

³ < americasfrontlinedoctors.com >< <https://medicalkidnap.com/2020/12/09/i-cant-keep-watching-patients-die-needlessly-medical-professor-testifies-to-congress-that-covid-cure-already-exists-with-ivermectin/> >< <https://covid19criticalcare.com> >

⁴ < aflids.org >

⁵ <https://www1.cbn.com/cbnnews/2020/april/dont-trample-the-constitution-churchgoers-fined-500-by-police-for-sitting-in-their-cars-with-windows-closed>

That's how you know a stronghold is evident. That's how you know a lie is being told in order to effectuate a certain outcome. The church has maintained a Jezebel spirit in both denying the Spirit of God in power, signs and wonders and in sleeping with the devil in sexual sin. A Jezebelian spirit is easy to kick off of someone flowing in Godly power. Once we are compromised, it becomes harder, but not impossible. What makes this thing so insidious is when it marries or becomes joined to a Babylonian spirit.

In my first book, 'Beyond Strongholds, Infiltration by the Glory of God,' I go in-depth into Old Testament Jezebel. What made her powerful was her marriage to legitimacy by marrying an Israeli King. She was a daughter of Tyre. When these sexual, homosexual spirits try to gain power they always go to government to get it. Here in America, this isn't necessary. Why? Because we are very much like the book of Judges; we do what is right in our own eyes. In this case, we have a national narrative of allowing people to do their own thing as long as they don't harm someone else.

As Thomas Jefferson once said, "But our rulers can have no authority over such natural rights, only as we have submitted to them. The rights of conscience we never submitted, we could not submit. We are answerable for them to God. The legitimate powers of government extend to such acts only as are injurious to others. But it does me no injury for my neighbor to say there are twenty gods, or no god. It neither picks my pocket nor breaks my leg.”⁷

⁶ < <https://www.foxnews.com/politics/aoc-ocasio-cortez-ayanna-pressley-bail-counter-protesters-boston-straight-pride-parade-squad> >< <https://www.oregonlive.com/news/2020/06/whos-behind-the-portland-protest-bail-fund-thats-raised-more-than-500000.html> >

So it matters very little for homosexuals to join to whom they please. They must stand before God and give an account for what they have done in this life. If someone’s religion forbids such action, then leave the faithful alone. It is no harm to the homosexual for churches to say no to blessing homosexual actions. It is a bald-faced lie from the pit of hell that says homosexuals are born as such. They are not born homosexual. The human genome has already been mapped. There is no homosexual gene.⁸ It is a long series of choices that we make as humans. Children should not be involved in such action. Research doesn’t absolve the homosexual when children are involved any more than divorce of heterosexuals does. So in America there should be no warfare concerning this issue.

Nevertheless, the devil and social-communists need this war to go on. They must get rid of the church in some way. This issue will do nicely. Now, the devil doesn’t know exactly what God is going to do to deliver a people. He just knows if the people are around that can bring deliverance, he must do something to get rid of them. The pattern of Israel and her neighbors are our best biblical example of that. In order to take out a nation of God’s people, the devil has always used this Jezebelian, quasi-religious Babylonian spirit to do so. The book of Esther gives us an Old Testament example of that.

The government that made the laws for the largest part of the earth in that day was Babylon. To say Babylon was sexually pure would be an abject lie. With an anointing of God upon Israel, most normal people in Babylon would not have hated their Jewish neighbors. It would have taken a spirit desiring control, power or sexual power— which is akin to rape— in order to make a law to destroy God’s people. Babylon found that ancestry inside Haman. He came from a long line of Agagites. This is about 800 years in time after Ruth finds favor with God and becomes King David’s great-grandmother.

⁷ Thomas Jefferson, “Query XVII, Notes on the State of Virginia” In “The Works of Thomas Jefferson” Edited by H.A. Washington. Volume 8; 400. (New York: Townsend Mac Coun. 1884)

⁸ < <https://www.geneticliteracyproject.org/2015/10/12/despise-what-you-may-have-read-theres-no-gay-gene/> > The previous is a quick and unbiased article. The second one is more involved with various overtones, but the science is still good. < <https://www.trueorigin.org/gaygene01.php> > accessed 4/9/16

To understand why we are seeing something here that is not natural, we only need to look at the Scriptures and study the history (1 Samuel 15). Agag was the king who reigned when Saul was instructed of the prophet/judge Samuel to exact Godly judgment over the Amalekites. In 1 Samuel 15:3, God’s instructions were given at the mouth of the prophet Samuel: “Take the stronghold and utterly destroy all— leave nothing spared.” Saul doesn’t do this; he spares many of them, including King Agag.

In verse 9, God reveals Saul’s heart— “They were unwilling to destroy completely.” Why? Because in their eyes this plunder was valuable, even though God said it wasn’t valuable enough to Him to keep it alive a minute longer than it needed to be. To the casual observer, Saul’s argument to the prophet in 1 Samuel 15:20-21 seems legitimate— they killed with the sword and brought back the best to be sacrificed. After all, Saul eludes in verse 24, the people outnumber him, and they start taking the spoil. So Saul gives in. But a closer look at Saul’s response in verses 20 and 21 will show that he knew better.

The Hebrew word Samuel uses in his instructions to Saul is charam. It conveys the meaning of separating something for total destruction as incense to be consecrated to the Lord. In other words, destroy it swiftly and immediately so that you never see it again. By Saul repeating the same word used by Samuel in his instruction in 1 Samuel 15:3 (he repeats it in 1 Samuel 15:15, 18 also), it shows that he understood the full implication of the word. Saul desired to control the situation and manipulate the outcome. The Lord looks on this as arrogance. The Hebrew literally translates like this: “Indeed, (like) a sin of diviners is rebellion, (like) the iniquity of terafim (household idols) a display of arrogance.”

Samuel declares that rebellion is as witchcraft and stubbornness is as idolatry. Let's put it in third millennial terms. When you think what God has given you isn't good enough or you feel you've got a better way, that's control. When God attempts to reveal your heart to you, but you've got theology behind a list of excuses for not obeying God, that's manipulation and a display of arrogance in God's eyes. In 1,000 plus BC⁹ Israeli terms, Samuel calls it witchcraft and idolatry (rebellion and stubbornness).

Look, if you will, at Isaiah 5:18-23 and Isaiah 42:8. You will see that God refuses to compete with our rebellion and stubbornness. They are witchcraft and idolatry to Him. And yet, the amazing part of Saul's story is that God gave Saul twenty-one years to repent after pronouncing judgment in 1 Samuel 15:26-29. Some argue that this reprieve gave Ruth's great-grandson, King David, time to learn how to be a better king. Definitely so, but God's plans are as multifaceted as He is in glory. You might say, what has this story got to do with Esther? Well, quite a few scholars believe this Haman, who desired to kill all living Jews during Queen Esther's time is the long distance relative of those whom Saul spared in Agag's bloodline. The Bible doesn't tell us stories and parables just to fill up the pages of the book.

Whether we like it or believe it, God will have His way; and, He has a way of recording it that can leave you a scoffer or a believer, depending upon what's in your heart. If what's in your heart is covered in layers of demonic and unbelieving strongholds, then that is what will come out. There are two places in Esther where we see the stronghold, or unnatural thought process. As mentioned before, most normal people in Babylon would have no quarrel with their neighbor Jews. If they did, as Hamon did here, they wouldn't have wanted to destroy a whole nationality of people, but the single person or neighbor giving them the problem.

⁹ Some time periods in the Bible are approximations. Unless we have an outside source to compare with, as in the case of Queen Esther, we simply do not know exactly when something takes place.

We all know the story. Esther's cousin, Mordecai would not bow before Haman. He wouldn't do so because He feared the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; the same God we serve as Christians. Instead of destroying Mordecai for this insult, Haman wants to destroy all of the people who were the same ancestry as Mordecai in all of the realms of Babylon (Esther 3:6). This desire also lends credence to the history of the bloodline in Haman. Samuel killed many Agagites and now Haman wants to wipe out every Jew.

Like Americans, the Babylonians had many different cultures in the nation. As long as the laws were obeyed, great grace was given to the different cultural traditions of their neighbors. To destroy a whole people group for the perceived insult of one man is absurd. We know it was absurd from another portion of Esther. After the edict is delivered and brought to the attention of the entire realm, the Bible states in Esther 3:15: "The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed." It was such an odd command that the whole city was confused or perplexed by it. While in confusion, the king himself thinks nothing of it and sits down to drink. When what you are doing makes no common sense, follows no science nor follows the directives or commandments of God, it is a demonic stronghold.

In America today, we are following demonic strongholds. We neither follow science nor reality. The reality of the last election is so fraught with fraud, that it's almost easy to find it.¹⁰ Yet, the media is telling you to not only ignore it, but you will become marginalized and persecuted if you say anything about the fraud.¹¹ We here at the ministry are used to Facebook denying advertising for our posts. They've done it so many times that I can't count. The painting you see attached to this article is by one of our dear friends; she has been a great help to this ministry. This woman of God has been serving Him with her husband for about thirty to forty years. We have many such saints connected to this ministry, and I praise God for them.

¹⁰ From a secular, tech world: < deepcapture.com > From a Christian perspective: < <https://m.youtube.com/watch?feature=youtu.be&v=hPq8q7mVhX0> > Here is a concise article listing the merits of each case of fraud in the 2020 election and the inane reasons judges denied each one. Only in one case was it denied because it was brought past the allotted timeframe: < <https://thefederalist.com/2021/03/11/courts-repeatedly-refused-to-consider-trumps-election-claims-on-the-merits/> >

Nevertheless, our sister has been an artist we feature a lot here. The painting is gorgeous. I saw a larger rendition of it than what I was able to attach online. It is an example in art form of what God has been telling her in word concerning America and this whole attempted takeover by communism: "The Lion of the Tribe of Judah will prevail." She sells and posts her artwork on her Facebook page, as well as on her website. So to advertise her artwork on Facebook, is not an unusual occurrence. Facebook denied her request. Just flat out told her no, she couldn't advertise that particular painting.

Saints, if God does not show up for us, the enemy's desire is to take America captive and then swallow the church up as Haman tried to do to the Jews in Esther's time.¹² What we need desperately is our Kinsman Redeemer, Jesus. If He doesn't come to rescue us, time will be cut off—and this is the devil's desire. He knows a great revival is coming. He can't let the church get loose. He can't have us believing God's word that the preaching of the Gospel is accompanied by signs and wonders. He can't have us baptized in the Holy Ghost and fire with the manifest presence of God in glory flowing over our endeavors and lives. And most of all, he can't allow literally millions of people to be led to the Lord to become part of the army of God.

¹¹ < <https://www.breitbart.com/2020-election/2020/11/10/anti-trumpers-look-to-blacklist-trumps-election-lawyers-make-them-famous> >< <https://www.breitbart.com/2020-election/2020/11/13/under-pressure-trump-lawyers-quit-in-pennsylvania/> >< <https://www.newsmax.com/us/cnn-cancel-culture-big-tech-censorship/2021/01/17/id/1006021/> >

¹² < <https://www.dailywire.com/news/report-dem-congressmen-to-offer-document-to-biden-championing-secularism-attacking-christian-nationalist-movement> >< <https://ifapray.org/blog/democrats-demand-biden-to-remove-re-educate-conservative-christians/> >

As the Body of Christ we have one thing that gets in our way to all this awesome revival of God: rebellion. Rebellion in our past that has caused many different denominations; rebellion in our own hearts and rebellion right now within the blood-bought, Spirit-filled church of God will stop any move of God. If we decided to come together and put aside all our nonsense, it would be like the Hebrew words tamei and shaatnez. I went over this in my first book. Let me quote a few paragraphs from what I wrote in that book to explain what I mean:

“God stirs up controversy every time He sends prophets or comes to earth Himself. Frankly, I think He does this just to show us our strongholds. Biblical history has shown us that instead of dealing with our issues we shoot the messengers. Without exception, every Old Testament prophet, including Jesus, came on the scene to break up what scholars have called priest-craft. Priest-craft as a stronghold is similar in its negative connotation to witchcraft, but it is different. Priest-craft is a result of our debate with God’s desire to do things His way when He arrives on the scene. When we as priests function by Jesus Christ, who is the Word, through the Holy Spirit we function as holy vessels.

“When we confuse our fleshly understanding with God’s holy desires, or when we substitute a portion of what He says for what we desire in our carnality, then we function in priest-craft. Two Old Testament words better explain this concept. When you tell Christian people not to sin, often their attitude sounds like this: “I don’t smoke or chew or go with those who do. So I don’t sin.” It is hard to convince some people that spiritual sin is the same as physical sin. Strongholds are those attitudes that we use as a shield of faith to protect us instead of God. Only His Word and His Spirit can be our shield of faith. When we substitute our own systems of protection for His Word and mix our own desires with the Holy Spirit’s commands we function in two different Hebrew words. They are tamei and shaatnez.

“Tamei is most often translated as “tainted or polluted.” More modern scholars believe that the word tamei is best translated through the modern word radioactivity.¹³ In other words, the environment around us becomes so charged by the radioactive toxicity of our sin that God leaves. Here's the subtlety of radioactivity. In and of itself it is not toxic. What makes it toxic is that it fools you, causing you to exchange the real for the fake. Radioactive chemicals such as Strontium 90 mimic calcium, Cesium 137 mimics potassium and Carbon 14 mimics nitrogen. Our bodies depend upon calcium and potassium for good health. Every plant that grows on our planet needs nitrogen. When the real calcium, potassium or nitrogen is not present our bodies will substitute whatever counterfeit they find that mimics the real to survive. Plants do the same thing.

¹³ Everett Fox, “The Five Books of Moses; The Schocken Bible, Volume 1” (Schocken Books, Inc., New York, 1995) pages 497, 498

“In fact, this acceptance of counterfeit minerals is so dangerous that even after a small amount of exposure, our bodies can begin preferring the substitute counterfeit instead of the real even when the real is available because the counterfeit becomes easier to assimilate. Now think of this in spiritual terms and how easy it is for us to get ideas, thoughts and pretensions (2 Corinthians 10:4, 5) that can exalt themselves over and above what God thinks or knows. Satan will always try to substitute his ways instead of what God wants. Isn't this what the antichrist is, an attempt at substitution for Jesus Christ?

“Shaatnez has to do with mixing things in matters in which only God is allowed to mix things. Under the Old Covenant fields, crops, clothing and animals fell into this category. While the word tamei dealt more with the pollution of the sanctuary, vessels and people, shaatnez encompassed what and how people survived outside the temple. Mixing could only be accomplished as God deemed fit, not according to their individual human judgment.

“The Old Testament leaders and priests worked hard to keep up the appearance of following these Laws (they didn't smoke or chew or go with those who do). But the very attitudes that these words and laws would have prevented had they been obeyed in their hearts, were attitudes they functioned in every day. They had so twisted Scripture by substituting their own interpretations of the Law that they found it easy to crucify Christ, thus creating a tamei, or polluted spiritual environment. They so mixed God with their own desires that for forty more years they didn't miss a heart beat, but kept the temple going as if Christ had never been there. They mixed what they thought God wanted with what He was actually doing on earth.”¹⁴

¹⁴ Meier, Christine. 2002 “Beyond Strongholds: Infiltration By The Glory of God.” Creation House Press, Orlando, Florida. Pages 21-23. You can get a copy on this site. In fact, we'll send you one free if you click on the “Contact” link. You must request the book by name. This only applies within the United States. Otherwise shipping charges will apply.

What was the key reason Ruth, Naomi and Esther saw deliverance? It was their fear of God. What was Samuel's instruction to Saul? Burn it on the altar. In other words, your obedience is the sacrifice in the fear of the Lord. Let me share with you the word of the Lord to my heart— not just for the arrival of a Kinsman Redeemer— It's not only the fact that the Lion of the Tribe of Judah has prevailed, as our sister shared— It's not just the reality that those filled with the Holy Spirit have enemies in this country and that when God arises, His enemies are scattered, as the Lord has shown us (Psalm 68:1-4)— It's the reality that God is getting ready to cross the streams of revival. He is getting ready to do only what God can do: He is getting ready to mix it up and bring the fire and streams of revival together in one end-time revival harvest.

This “mixing” or crossing can only be done by God, else it is tamei and shaatnez. I've been sensing this for a very long time. God has been giving me tidbits here and there as well as the Scriptures to go along with it. One day a few weeks back, another intercessor connected to this ministry was sharing with me that the Lord told her He was restoring a Spirit of Truth back into this nation, in fact, back into the church. I was sharing with her my burden for the fear of the Lord. As we compared notes, we were moved to go to Isaiah 11. Let me highlight what the Lord pulled out for me for this article. Let's look at Isaiah 10:27b: “. . . and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.”

Isaiah 11:1-5: “And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots: And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD; And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth: with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.”

I have received much from the Lord concerning this end-time revival from Isaiah, but it cannot be shared in an article. It would take a small book. But let me highlight the first truth: God is getting ready to remove yokes that have kept the church, as well as many on planet Earth bound, and He's getting ready to do it as a result of the anointing breaking yokes or bondages.

That anointing is coming because of what King Jesus brings to the proverbial table. Let's look at our highlighted verse from Isaiah 11:3. Isaiah is talking about Jesus coming in the fear of the Lord. Let me share the highlighted verse 3a from the NET Bible: "He will take delight in obeying the Lord." The fear of the Lord is more than a respect. It is that, but it is an adoration of respect and trust. Neither version really renders the sentence literally from the Hebrew. The sentence literally says, "and his smelling is in the fear of the Lord." Odd, you might say? Well, in Amos 5:21, we have the Hebrew tense of this word translated the same way. There, the prophet is talking about God no longer smelling with delight the Israelites' temple sacrifices during their festivals or meetings. Because this verse in Isaiah carries no incense or fire, many translators refuse to note it. The NET Bible does in its volume of notes. The word ruakh, is where we get the word breath from. The tense of the word used here is 'to smell.'

I believe it must be included in any understanding of the fear of the Lord. Why? Because Jesus is described as coming to save and deliver Israel. He is noted as successful because He literally gives delight to the Lord because of His fear of the Father; it is as a sweet smell before Him. It is as a burnt sacrifice on the altar of worship.

This is the connection we see from our three women. This is the desire Samuel tries to convey to Saul, to no avail. This is why Ruth's great grandson becomes a king in the lineage of Jesus. This very sacrifice will waft up to our High Priest, Jesus, and to His Father and our Father. True worship always brings God to our tables. When Father and Son "smell" this incense, it will bring them as fire on our altars; living sacrifices before the Lord (Romans 12:1-3). When Father smells this, He will tell Jesus, It Is Time!

This is why we cannot “mix” or cross streams as we desire. As the fear of the Lord is heightened in all camps, Jesus will come and ignite the anointing for the harvest. Many will realize the walls that divide us are not from God. As this prophetic, evangelistic movement goes forth across the blood-bought, Spirit-filled church, the streams will cross so it becomes one long, end-time harvest revival.

This is what the enemy is fighting to stop by weaponizing a virus. This is why a computer system was accessed by the internet so thousands of votes could be changed. God doesn't care what the enemy thinks he has gotten away with. God doesn't care who wants to sit behind a desk or what laws they pass to try to destroy the church. It will not succeed.

As the enemy is trying to institute a worldwide communistic system to entangle the people of the Earth, God is coming as Kinsman Redeemer: the Deliverer of His people. As the enemy thinks he will destroy and confiscate the people and property of God, God is giving the world a revitalized America as truth in government. Each nation has a truth and healing or destiny to fulfill for the Earth. America is no different. She will move in the word of God as truth for a government by and for the people, ensconced in freedom and liberty. She will sing the praises of God from one generation of Americans to another. As the streams of revival cross, the fear of the Lord and the glory of the Lord will cover the Earth as the waters cover the seas. His glory will prevail. The Lion of the Tribe of Judah will prevail.

It doesn't matter what social media or corporations or governments do to silence this word; God is greater and will amplify His word to every corner of the Earth. How do I know God will once again use Donald Trump or someone like him? Jesus did not specifically tell me Trump would be president again. Our sister intercessor wrote that Trump would once again serve us. What exactly does that mean? I truly do not know. All I know is that Jesus doesn't need a man in the White House to do anything. But I do know during this time that Jesus will pick the man or woman who will make it all about what God wants and what God desires. He or she will move in the fear and admonition of the Lord. While this will not be a political revival, politics will have no choice but to change. We will once again see God invade politics, as He did in 1776, and produce a place of comfort and rest for His presence among His people.

And Israel will see this and become jealous for her Elder Brother to return. But I am getting ahead of myself. One day at a time, one step at a time until we, like Enoch and Elijah are not because God has taken us (Genesis 5:24; 2 Kings 2:11)!

If you're finding all of this a little too much to believe, that's okay. Here is my advice: Get into the presence of God. Start confessing His great love and desire for you. If you have never accepted Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, you can do that right now. Here is what Romans 10:9 says: "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Why, you might ask? Romans 10:10-11 tells us why we must confess this: "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed." Jesus is as close as this prayer.

Many Christians have prayed this prayer but still find it hard to believe God for anything. Here is my advice. Start reading your Bibles over and over. If you belong to a church, ask your pastor to attend the Bible studies they offer for the church. If you need some, we offer them here on this site under the "Ministry Materials" Tab. The same rules apply as the books: Free within the United States. You must put your contact info in after you hit the "Contact Us" Tab and you must put down exactly which study guide you want. We are out of Sanctification and Transformation ones since the new book is getting ready to be sent to the publishers. As soon as those are available, we will let you know.

Do something else: Worship and pray regularly. I've put a link here to a song we've been singing here lately. If you don't know Jesus as one who chases after you with goodness, sing this song to yourself over and over. The words will sink into your spirit as you worship Him. They will become your reality. When we believe what's in the book with our hearts and confess it with our mouths, we receive what we ask for. God loves you and has a great plan for your life. You can believe it because it's in the book. Jeremiah 29:11 (NET Bible): " 'For I know what I have planned for you,' says the Lord. 'I have plans to prosper you, not to harm you. I have plans to give you a future filled with hope.' " Click here or copy and paste for the song of the Lord that goes along with this article: <https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=n0FBb6hnwTo>