New York, NY— Felicia C. Greenberg, the owner of Table Art & Event Designs and a New York based visual artist, is honored to announce the debut of her unique Floral Pet Sculpture Exhibition at this year's Meet & Compete. Felicia will unveil her enchanting displays on Saturday, February 13th at Pier 94 in New York City. Her tableaux will showcase Borzoi flappers and a Queen Shih Tzu primping in a French boudoir, while dressed to the nines in jewels and gowns for a masquerade evening out on the town.

Simultaneous to her installation, Felicia will also celebrate her second consecutive year as the featured artist for the Bergamasco Sheepdog Club Booth. Her Bergamasco Sheepdog flower sculpture is comprised of thousands of tiny flowers, which form the dreadlocks of this unique breed. Her piece is so life-like that viewers may confuse it with a breathing Bergamasco. Last year, with the help of Felicia's artistic talents, the booth received the honor of Best in Show.

Felicia Greenberg has received widespread recognition for her meticulously detailed, silk Floral Sculptures. Her creations come to life as one by one, silk flower petals are placed upon the wire figure frame foundation she sculpts. With a theatrical influence and a love for flowers, Felicia creates charming displays with whimsical narratives. Creating both singular pieces, as well as tableaux scenes, her works convey a surreal quality, inspired by Victorian elegance and often embellished with vintage fabrics and trims. Each of Felicia's magical pieces are highly unique and intricate.

Felicia's work has been featured by several publications and media outlets including The Wall Street Journal, Newsday, CBS Television, Cable Broadcasts such as News 12 CT's "Pet Talk" with Lauren Collier and nationwide radio shows such as "Talkin' Pets" and New York's Apple AM970. Felicia's work has been enjoyed by celebrities such as Christie Brinkley, Jill Rappaport, David Frei, celebrity chef Todd English, Jill Zarin, Maria Milito and others at various charity fund-raisers in New York City and The Hamptons. She has created sculpted pieces to South Hampton Hospital, Samuel Waxman Cancer Research Foundation, Rock Can Roll Hunger Relief and others, and has designed for events by the AON Corporation, Oheka Castle, and the Humane Society of New York.

The American Kennel Club Meet & Compete attracts dog lovers and Westminster Dog Show supporters from around the globe.

Felicia will be on hand to talk about her exciting artwork and floral displays. She welcomes you to inquire about seeing samples of her work in person, including her new gift line of pet breed likenesses and floral ornaments. She is looking forward to meeting you at the event!
