

Langley, Kari L.

Kari Lu Langley, age 53 of Midland (formerly of Pigeon), passed away Friday, October 27 at Mid Michigan Medical Center, Midland.

She was born in Pigeon on August 4, 1953, the daughter of Orville and Caralea (Deering) Reed and graduated in 1971 from Laker High School. She married Roy Langley of Bay Port.

Kari worked as activities director at the Huron Medical Care Facility for many years until 2004. She then worked in Bay City for Heartland Home Hospice for one year prior to her illness. She was an artisan, and handcrafted beautiful jewelry. She also enjoyed reading and was an excellent public speaker. Kari loved her family dearly.

She was a member of the Community of Christ in Bay Port.

Her survivors include a daughter, Kara Langley and fiance Chris Arrington of Midland; her father, Orville "Peanut" Reed of Kissimmee, Florida; her brother, Ted Reed of Kissimmee, Florida; several aunts, uncles, and cousins; her faithful friend and companion Bichon-Maltese dog, Sofia; and many friends. She was preceded in death by her mother, Caralea, and her grandparents.

Cremation has taken place. A Memorial Service will be conducted at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 1 at the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon, with Elder Terry Brown of the Community of Christ, Bay Port, officiating. Interment will be at New Bay Port Cemetery.

Memorials may be directed to the Community of Christ, Bay Port.
