

Skydive Headcorn

Uncurrent or not yet qualified.

If you fall into one of the following categories, you will need some form of retraining.

- You have trained elsewhere but are not yet qualified.
- You trained here, are not yet qualified and have not jumped for two months.
- You have a licence from this country or abroad have less than 100 jumps and have not jumped for two months.

A retrain takes as long as it needs depending on what you remember and what stage you previously reached. It could last 30 minutes, or it could last several hours.

Examples of costs are as follows: -

British Skydiving membership (mandatory) circa £110

Club membership (mandatory) £30

Retrain (depending on length) £30 - £130

Two on one jump with instructors £220 - £265

One on one jump with an instructor £140 - £150

Solo Student jumps £50

Licensed solo jumps with equipment £43

All the above jump prices include the cost of equipment and flight tickets which are payable to the operators of the aircraft.

Retrains must be arranged in advance by email to jump@headcorn.com
