

God Says, "Think on Me!"

Too many times we get so wrapped up in our busy lives, caught up with what's going on around us and because of it, we lose sight or sometimes forget what we need to really think on. Life's difficult situations continually challenge us as we lose sight of who we are in Him. We have so many different challenges that try to thwart who we are in Him. We have events in our life that try to drain the aspects of who we really are in Him. Friends, it is the day to day grinding of life that tries diligently to whittle away at who HE created us to be.

God says, "Stop and think on Me. Think on My words to you. Think on what I have spoken to you. My words are truth."

No matter where you are, the Lord is calling you to think on Him and what He has said. He wants you to think on what He's spoken to you over the years.

God says; "Stop and think on Me. Think on who I called you to be. I have called you to be a light in the darkness. I have called you to be salt upon the earth."

He wants you to think on His plans and how really good they are. He wants you to trust Him even though they tarry. He wants you to think on -because of Jesus you are an inheritor of eternal life (1 John 5:11-12), that this world and these situations are simply temporary. That means your struggles, concerns, hurts, disappointments or what ever else is happening are only in the now, and what is beyond all this is truly what is important.

"Stop and think on Me. Think of who you are to Me. Think of my Son and My love for you. I created you to be an overcomer through the blood of my Son."

He wants you to think on Him and how because of Jesus you are daily overcoming the evil one (1 John 4:4). My friends- YOU are redeemed from the hand of the enemy because of Jesus and the price He paid! (Psalm 107:2). God is asking you to think on Him and on His truth! You are overcoming despite what the circumstances of life are trying to tell you!

Oh Heavenly Father,

Today I come to you in absolute surrender. I cast away all fear and look to You. Today I willingly make the choice to think only on You and Your Word. I rejoice in the truth of what I mean to You. Today I willingly make the choice to think only on what You have spoken to me. I know it is Your mighty power at work within Me. Oh Lord my God, I desire to walk in Your truth alone. It is my deepest desire to please You in all I do. I want Your kingdom to come and Your will to be done in my life not just today, but everyday. I know it is You who works in my heart when I yield to You. Today, I yield and embrace the truth You have spoken to me as truth. I willingly walk in Your Word to me. I thank you for always working things together for my good. I surrender to You. I will not shrink back but will press on in You. Thank you Lord. I love You and may my life reflect You in all I say and do. In Jesus Name.
