Creations by Melody, catering business, offering carry-out meals

Hi everyone!

As we older board members remember, for years MHS's biggest fundraiser was our bi-annual dinner. This was quite the endeavor with a full sitdown dinner, raffle baskets and other bid items. We even incorporated a live auction one year, and a square dance demonstration the next.

A big part of the dinner was the food selection and preparation. To save money on catering, we did this in-house. As I recall, former board member Jack Johnston, and Pres Doug Oppenheimer, were a huge part of this food preparation. If I'm forgetting someone, I apologize.

In more recent years, my wife Terri took over this task....(I may have "volunteered" her, which she reminded me that first year when she was in the throes of all the chaos.) 😊

Terri was able to do this because of our friendship and connection to a local Madeira catering business, Creations by Melody. Terri has worked for Paul and Melody Jaworski for 20 years. Melody provided a lot of behind-the-scenes advice and help. She asked for no credit or advertisement. Creations by Melody donated pre-dinner appetizers such as tortes, cheese trays, etc. In addition, she let Terri use her cooking facilities, along with providing chafers, hot boxes, some serving tables, and larger cooking/serving utensils. I'm sure there were other things I forgotten. In all, Melody and Paul were a big part of our success.

Now, for the reason I'm writing this letter. Their business has been greatly affected by the coronavirus. All of her major events have been canceled this spring and most will not be rescheduled! As a small business, they are doing everything possible to survive. For this reason, she has decided to offer carry out meals. I am reaching out to the Madeira Historical Society as a way to thank Creations by Melody for their support. Their food is fresh, creative and delicious! Many of you may have already experienced her dishes at weddings, parties, etc. that you attended.

Melody is taking orders now for next week, and doing daily updates. She will also be offering meatless options for Lent. As an aside, you can purchase gift certificates to be used later. For current menu items and to place orders, you can contact her in one of two ways:

- 1). Directly at her shop - (513)561-7696
- 2). Creations by Melody Facebook

Thank you for your consideration.
