Director's Note

First I Naach, then attain Moksh. I am proud to announce the 15th production from our Non-Profit organization Moksh Community Arts Inc. formed in 2016 for the purpose of nurturing local talent in the field of Dance, theater and music, by providing Performance Platforms.

Dil Se Naach 2022 CHALTI KA NAAM GAADI – BADHTE RAHO... is dedicated to all the beautiful children on this planet, who are the light of the universe, guiding and teaching us about love, openness, and truly dancing from the heart.

The performance is a collective celebration of our community in dance, featuring amazing dancers, innovative choreography, mesmerizing light design & visuals, combined with a colorful wardrobe of vibrant costumes all the way from Mumbai, creating an exciting and exuberant celebration of the community spirit in dance. This year we are featuring Jamila Piracci on Opera, a fashion show by Haute Couture directed by Anil Rana and Naach Houston Bollywood Dance Theatre.

This Project is supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts.

Naach Houston is celebrating a decade; the community has grown from a humble 60 to over 120 students, from diverse social and cultural backgrounds, all under one roof. We continue to live and share our dream with everyone.

Naach is more than a Dance Institution; we use dance as a means to empower individuals, creating leadership roles and imparting life skills through dance education in Houston. We cover diverse dance styles from Contemporary, Hip Hop, Indo Jazz, Latin and Bollywood Fusion in our varied syllabus.

The Naach team has performed for social causes partnering with non-profits such as Texana, Pratham Cultural Arts Initiative Inc and Daya, as well as graced the dance floor at corporate events for Fluor, KBR and AAHOA, just to name a few. Naach has performed with superstars as Bappi Lahiri, Richa Sharma, Raghav and Farhan Akhtar.

Guest of Honor

Cissy Segall Davis

A pioneer in Houston arts, media, and events, Segall Davis took on Miller Outdoor Theatre's managing director position in 2008, the culmination of a career that began in 1972 and has included the management, production, and promotion of theatrical, entertainment, and special event industries.

One of her first jobs was in concert promotion, and over the decades, she amassed a deep knowledge of promotions, public relations, management, and arts administration. Long a lover of theater and the performing arts, she's often called her position at the theater a dream job.

Under her leadership of Miller's day-to-day operations across the last nearly 15 years, Segall Davis oversaw a grants program for Houston performing arts and community organizations.

She also created and oversaw an annual season of more than 120 artistically and culturally diverse performances, all presented free of charge to the public. Segall's support of the arts and dedication to Miller helped build the theater's series, which runs from March to October, into the largest program of its kind in the U.S.
