

Good Has a Name

Good has a name and it's God. I love saying this and I will keep saying this all the days of my life. Any situation we are in cannot change this truth, God is GOOD!

He will guide our steps. If we view any situation properly through the eyes of faith we will see God's love and grace within any situation. We need to be willing to follow whatever directions God gives, as His wisdom is so much greater than ours.

Why? Good has a name and it's God!

As we walk in obedience to God's will, we can be assured that He will lead us successfully because Good has a name and it's God!

We must firmly accept that God loves us and that He is good. We cannot waver on these facts. His purposes for us are good because He is good.

We must believe that, regardless of what is happening in our life at any given moment of time, we view it from the perspective of God's unfailing love for us.

Why? Because Good has a name and it's God!

Will difficulties arise? Yes, but they are just a part of God's way of growing us into the people He made us to be.

Friends, I pray you hear this. By accepting that God is truly good, in control of everything and will always act out of His love for us, we can maneuver through anything without giving in to fear.

We have to believe that God is good and His plans for us are good, because Good has a name and it's God. Any change within us (or around us), or that comes from a situation, must be walked out in this truth - God is good.

Can I tell you something about change? Change provokes us into the place where we understand its meaning in the purposes of God. Change requires us to make the necessary adjustments in our attitudes, thoughts, energy and behaviors.

Hear this, He is good, and what He does is good. You can depend on Him for He will always be upright and good in what He does concerning you.
