Isaac Watts (1674-1748) was an English pastor, preacher, poet, and hymn writer. Wrote about 600 hymns including "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," "Am I a Soldier of the Cross," and "Joy to the World." Considered the founder of English hymnody and children's hymnody. Published books of poetry, hymns, and three volumes of theological discourses.

There is one sure and infallible guide to truth, and therefore, one, and only one, corrective for error, and that is the Word of God.

—G. Campbell Morgan
(1863-1945; British evangelist and Bible teacher)
