“Mail in the Digital Age” is coming to a Post Office near you!

On Friday, September 28, the U.S. Postal Service’s premier event, National Postal Customer Council (PCC) Day, is coming to the Post Office at 1900 West Oakland Park Blvd in Fort Lauderdale, FL --- conveniently located less than a mile west of I-95.

Take advantage of this action-packed day of educational workshops/presentations and networking opportunities with South Florida business mailers, mailing industry representatives, and executive postal leadership, including Southern Area Operations Vice President Shaun E. Mossman and South Florida District Manager Timothy R. Costello, as well as many local Postmasters.

South Florida’s Broward County, Miami-Dade County and Palm Beaches and Treasure Coast PCCs have joined together to host this event from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. A continental breakfast and a buffet style lunch are included in the ticket price --- $30 in advance and $40 at the door.

There are a limited number of vendor booths available at $350 (includes two guests and “A Minute at the Mic” to share your business with us!). You also may purchase a Platinum Vendor Table at the entrance to the vendor area for $750 for five guests, “Five Minutes at the Mic,” and your business logo featured on all three South Florida District PCC websites for the year.

Whether you reserve a seat for the educational workshops/presentations and/or purchase a vendor booth/table, you’ll be glad that you did!
