APPLY FOR ADDITIONAL CASH AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

You can receive cash awards and scholarships!

You can nominate your work to be considered for one or more of the scholarships below by providing a personal statement on how your work addresses the selected theme. Personal statements will be taken into consideration when making final scholarship selections. MAKE SURE YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE APPLYING FOR!

The Flaunt It Award

Does your work highlight what makes you different, whether seen or unseen? The Flaunt It Award, developed in collaboration with Don't Hide It, Flaunt It and underwritten by Don't Hide It, Flaunt It (DHIFI, Inc), RBC Foundation USA, Morgan Stanley, and HP recognizes teens who look or feel different from their peers and share their personal story about what makes them unique. The Flaunt It Award includes two $2,000 scholarships (one for art and one for writing) for teens and a $500 cash award for their educator. Winners will be selected based on their outstanding exploration of DHIFI's theme: "The things that make me different make me, me."

Yes No

New York Life Award

Does this piece relate to themes of death, grief, or personal loss? Apply for the New York Life Award, sponsored by the New York Life Foundation, which offers $2,500 scholarships to ten students whose works explore death and personal grief. Grief is the feeling and reaction associated with death. You can experience it after a loved one dies or after other major changes in your life. The death of a loved one and the grief that follows are a universal yet very unique, personal experience even in normal times. Sharing your story through art or writing can be a healing experience both for you and other teens who are grieving. Your creative work can help someone with similar experiences to you feel less alone.
