Mary Kay Is...

No Animal Testing for over 25 years!

We were one of the first cosmetic companies to issue a moratorium on Animal testing in the United States.

Mary Kay is committed to the elimination of animal testing! We do not conduct animal testing on our products or ingredients, nor ask others to do so on our behalf, except when required by law. Regulations on cosmetics constantly change, but Mary Kay has never wavered from our commitment to use alternative testing methods.

When Mary Kay Inc. learned of requirements by regulatory agencies in China, we were obliged to follow the law, as we do in every country where we operate. But, rest assured, our commitment to the elimination of animal testing has never changed or wavered. We are working very closely with the Chinese government to demonstrate that alternative testing methods ensure safe and effective products.

For more than two decades Mary Kay has been a global leader in helping to develop alternative testing methods for product safety. We are committed to the elimination of animal testing.
