Gearing up for Session

Every other year the 60 day Legislative Session is held in January. With the early start to Session, Committee weeks will begin in September and bills are already being filed.

The Palm Beach Legislative Delegation has already announced dates for their public hearing meetings starting September 19, 2017. You may visit the Delegation's website to get more information on meeting times and dates. www.pbcgov.org

At this time, the Broward County Legislative Delegation has not announced their public hearing schedule. Please visit their website for more information on times and dates. www.broward.org

Office hours

Each month my staff holds office hours in different areas of the district. Starting in September, there will be different topics spotlighted at each location, educating residents on important issues.
