

McMullen, Robert

Robert McMullen, 83, passed away on Monday, March 1, 2004, at his home in Fort Myers, Florida. He was born in Bad Axe on August 22, 1920 to Percy and Cassie (Morrison) McMullen. He served in the Navy on a patrol craft in the South Pacific from 1941-1945. He retired from the Treasury Department of the U.S. Federal Government service after 30 years. Moving from Michigan, his family became full-time residents of Lee County in Florida in 1957. He was a member of Araba Temple and a life member of Scottish Rite of Fort Myers. He was a life member of Verona-Huron Lodge 365. He is survived by his living wife of 59 years, Anna (Doty) McMullen, of Ft. Myers; his son, Dr. Robert McMullen, of New York City; grandchildren, Dawn McMullen, Diana McMullen, Deirdre McMullen, Beatrice McMullen and Robert McMullen. He was preceded in death by a son, Ronald McMullen; and his brother, Captain William McMullen, U.S. Air Force. A memorial service was held on Saturday, March 6, 2004, at the Estero Methodist Church of Estero, Florida. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Hope Hospice of Fort Myers.