

WRAPPED
in LOVE
PROGRAM

May Notes

It seems the long awaited beautiful weather is finally here to stay! Nature is always motivating with her pallet of colors, abundance of scents and brilliant skies. Our variety of beautiful shawls seems to mimic the landscape as each presents its own unique beauty of blended woven colors and flowing patterns. We packaged 90 shawls this month and our numbers have been consistently high for the past several months. A big “thank you” is in order to all of those who make this program possible - we couldn’t do it without you!

We have numerous volunteers who assist with Wrapped in Love and many of you I do not have the pleasure of seeing or meeting but please know how valuable you are to our program. Those who cannot make our packaging meetings may not know that our Wrapped in Love coordinator (me!) will be marrying a double organ transplant recipient (Michael) in June. Our wedding is a fundraiser for organ and tissue donation in honor of Michael’s donor. The wedding will take place in the beautiful Meditation Garden at NJ Sharing Network. If you would like to attend, please visit www.njsharingnetwork.org/mikelisawedding

In other news, we have received the following notes of gratitude from donor families:

“Thank you for the Wrapped in Love comfort shawl. Tom passed 2 years ago and I still cherish his memory. Miss him so much! Great organization - NJ Sharing Network.”

“Thank you for the beautiful blanket. I am using the blanket on my couch. I look at it and it reminds me of Bruce.”

“Thank you for the shawl. It’s beautiful and warm. I’m glad my decision has improved someone’s life.”

Wishing everyone a wonderful day!
