We take the issue of security in our chalet very seriously. Guests should be aware, however, that the chalet may not be locked at all times. There will also be shared access with other guests. It is your responsibility to ensure that you are in possession of a valid passport with all the necessary visas to allow entry to all of the countries that you will pass through as part of your holiday. At the time of going to print, people holding full British or EU passports do not require a visa to visit France. Please note that children must hold their own passports. Families must accept responsibility for the behaviour and welfare of any children in their party. Every effort is made to ensure safety in our chalet; however, any client taking children on holiday does so at their own risk. 15. ARRIVALS, DEPARTURES AND DELAYS

Our check-in time is between 16:00 and 19:00. Departure time is 10:00. Where clients have a late afternoon departure and wish to leave luggage at the chalet, we will provide space for them to do so. Morning arrivals are subject strictly to prior arrangement and we reserve the right to make an additional charge. We appreciate that options on flights may mean that guests will arrive at the chalet later than 19:00. For arrivals after 21h00, we cannot guarantee a full dinner, but will endeavour to provide you with a meal (where a catered chalet has been booked). We regret that we are not in a position to assist clients in the event of a delay at their outward or homeward point of departure.
