

Anna Richardson, age 97, of Bad Axe, passed away on Thursday September 8, 2016 surrounded by her family.

Anna was born on January 30, 1919 in Gaylord, MI, daughter of the late George and Ella (Fuhrman) Hacker.

Anna had been a lifelong member of the Community of Christ Church. She was the past President of the Women's Department in the church. She was the past Corresponding Secretary of the Thumb Industries when it was first started at the Sheltered Workshop. She was the past president of Thumb Singles Dance Club in Bad Axe; a helpline volunteer and past member of the Business and Professional Club representing the Michigan Bell Telephone Company for 25 yrs. She also worked at the Willow Run Bomber Plant in the early 1940's. Anna truly enjoyed her family, friends, playing cards, and dancing.

Anna is survived by: 2 daughters- Gail Hutchinson of Bad Axe.

Dianna (Tom) Radomski.

2 Step-daughters-Julia Heilig of Ubly.

Becky (Jim) Laurretta of Morrice, MI.

Niece-Kathleen VanTassel.

Many loving grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren.

Her loving companion "Mama Kitty".

Anna was preceded in death by: Husbands-Thomas B. Forsyth in 1972, Howard Tough in 1982, Walter Richardson in 1990.

Son-Robert Forsyth in January 1999.

Sister-Vera Willard.

Brother-Arlie VanTassel.

Services will be held on Monday, September 12, 2016 at 1 pm at the Kaufman Funeral Home in Bad Axe. Friends may call at the Kaufman Funeral Home on Sunday from 4-8 pm or Monday from noon until the time of service at 1 pm.