

E. W. E. BUNDSCHO
PASSES AWAY

Was a Resident of Pigeon For Many Years. Served as Village Clerk

A telegram from Atlanta Georgia was received in Pigeon yesterday announcing the death of Ed Bundscho who passed away in a hospital in that city Tuesday after an operation.

E. W. E. Bundscho was born and raised in Elkton and located at Pigeon entering into the employ of the late

Joseph Schluchter when a young man. He conducted a hardware store here for a few years and also served as village clerk for a number of years.

He moved to Atlanta Georgia about nine years ago.

He is survived by a wife a son and daughter. DIED 9-26-1922

