Easter Greetings!

In spite of the beautiful last few days with flowers blooming on the trees and spring fragrance in the air, it still feels like we haven't risen yet.

With masks on our faces we are still walking in fear. But also with hope. St. Paul describes us as those who have been brought to life with Christ. We carry within ourselves that same Risen Lord who so powerfully transformed the lives of His first disciples.

Let's claim for ourselves the power of the Risen Lord dwelling within us helping us to cope with the stresses we all are experiencing at the present time.

This life is a preparation for eternity and there will be many surprises awaiting us in Heaven.

But one of the nicer surprises may be to find that all our heartaches were simply growing pains.

May the truth of Easter enlighten whatever darkness you are in!

Father Andrzej
