STREAKIN FRENCH BULLET

My mom Debbi King, raised StreakinFrenchBullet. She owns his mom, Dolly, and she has been very special to us. We acquired her from a good family friend and each baby she has produced for us has been a winner. She is foundation running blood and passes grit, bone, and mass to all her babies.

My mom was looking through Outback Stallion Station catalogue one winter day and saw the French StreakToVegas ad. She called me and told me how much she likes him and asked me to get hold of the owners. We just happened to be at the same barrel race in Texas and so I got to see him in person and talk to my friend Tasha Welsh about him who was riding him at the time. I then found out he was the same horse I had liked in Idaho that Abby Michaleas was riding the previous summer. We bred two mares to him that year and we were ecstatic when he and Hallie finished the year with a bang. The next spring my mom had Bullet and his brother Pistol who ironically won the 2D of the DWPB futurity with his great trainer! That was as fun as it could get for my mom!

My mom loves all of her babies and we always joke that there is no better place for a baby to grow up but in the hands of my mom. They learn love, respect, and confidence in humans, which in turn makes my job fun. Bullet has always been easy and a favorite of many. Everyone who is around him grows in love and admiration for him. He is just a nice horse, so training him was a pleasure. I followed 2 great horsemen Curt Elgin and Curt LaDuke who between the two started Bullet and then rode him outside and got his feet moving but kept him happy and confident. I took him as a 3 year old with a little over 60 rides and just kept it simple and fun.

I had Bullet ready for the C N Futurity and was really looking forward to it being our first outing, but I got into a freak horse accident and cut the end of my middle finger off the week of the futurity. My horses and I had to sit out for a good 6 weeks while I recovered. When I started back it was as if I had never gotten off Bullet. The DWPB futurity was his first futurity and 5th and 6th run ever! He has truly been a blessing with a heart of gold. From here out our plan is to try to stay consistent and hit a few more futurities and open races and hopefully have a rodeo horse in the end.

From here out our plan is to try to stay consistent and hit a few more futurities and open races and hopefully have a rodeo horse in the end.

I had no expectations going into the DWPB Futurity except to do our very best. I took my daughter, some friends, my stallion, and a couple other open horses with me and we just wanted to do the very best we could. I knew that this was our first race under pressure and I just wanted to make 2 solid runs. My first run was just that, and we were 2nd in the round behind an idol of mine, Kristen Weaver Brown and the great mare she is riding this year. The next run I came out crying as Bullet gave me his all and a rush of admiration towards him and complete gratification to be his jockey just hit me.

Bullet has only run 8 times. He won a beautiful saddle, buckle, and 7 out of 8 runs he has won money. I would say he has won close to $3000 so far not counting the $2700 gift certificate that the DWPB Futurity sponsored.

- I can't pinpoint an exact favorite bit, but I do love all Sue Smiths designs and Elliott Bits.

- Ever since I tried my first Larry Coats saddle I have been in love with them. He is an artist and I appreciate all the support he has given me throughout the years.

- I use Larry Coats balance pads as well as 5 Star pads that my uncle Bruce King ordered me and got me hooked on.

- I give all my horses as much Alfalfa and Teff as they can eat, and they are on American Family Feed who has also supported and sponsored our family's horses, and whom I am very grateful for.

- I do not have a routine therapy for Bullet that I use. I did do the Salt Water Air treatment at the DWPB futurity and I loved it. He also wears a MagnaCU Blanket. He is weird about his legs so I do not wrap them.

I love to do more than one thing on all my horses, so Bullet does quiet barrel work and rights and lefts, but I ride him in the field to open his lungs, as well as chase cattle out of the arena, gather cattle, and just keep him happy.

GIVING THANKS: I give a huge shout out to everyone who has believed in me and trusted me with their horses. I also want to thank my sponsors, American Family Feed, Formula 1, Equibrand, and my family in Wyoming, Bruce King and Kings Saddlery.

I give all my credit and glory to first of all God for allowing and providing me the opportunity to be who I am, secondly to my family, my mom, my fiancé Brandon Bates, my sister, my children, Brandon's family, and the friends I have that are family to me. They have supported me through every up and down. Thirdly I would like to thank everyone who has ever taken the time to let me pick their brain about horses, training, competition, and to those of you that formed me into the rider I am today. I appreciate all of the competition, the women and men that push each of us to get out of bed and try harder and be better.

Haha!! I guess a fact about me that my mom knows because I give her the credit for it and my fiancé knows because I take all the closet space and much more is that I have a clothes fetish and a passion for fashion and art.

The very best advice that I can give is to have a true passion and desire each day and each ride to learn something new from others around you as well as from each horse you are riding. And always remember, there is a first for everyone--first futurity, first rodeo, first jackpot, so don't be afraid of your first and believe in yourself.

Erin
