The Daytona Flea Market opened to the public in the spring of 1981. Long before superstores and the internet came to be, the market was a veritable hub of products from around the country and around the world. Take a look at our beginnings!

MARKET FEATURES:

The Daytona Flea Market is one of Florida's largest flea markets. The Market spreads over forty big acres and houses hundreds of vendors selling thousands of different items. It is the area's largest tourist attraction and has bargains galore - a wonderful place to do your souvenir shopping and buy fresh citrus to take home with you.

"Rain or Shine," we have you covered, so come out and browse under our cool covered bargain areas with paved floors for easy walking. When you visit, be sure to try our "World Famous Funnel Cakes" and other tasty treats provided throughout the Market.

Handicapped parking and clean restroom facilities are also provided.

Have fun on the World's Most Famous Beach - Now visit Florida's Best Flea Market for more fun.

Primitive Expressions “The Tiki Shop”

One of the landmark shops at the Daytona Flea & Farmer’s Market is Primitive Expressions - also known as The Tiki Shop. For 30 years, owner Shawn David has been delivering tropical art from Indonesia, Haiti and Thailand to the East coast of Florida. With 5 shipping containers of new art designs every year Shawn has been supplying market customers with island-inspired art to transform their outdoor spaces into tropical oases.

Shawn’s inspiration for retail decor started with his father’s chain of furniture stores. After traveling to Indonesia Shawn recognized the potential for bringing island art to wholesale and retail markets here in Florida. Shawn discovered the Daytona Flea Market after operating 8 retail stores and decided to make it his business home. Primitive Expressions is now a major attraction for those seeking to re-create the island atmosphere in their own homes. Shawn’s secret to success is providing great customer service, variety, fresh designs and attractive prices. His appreciation for his customers keeps them coming back time after time to see new, unique art for their homes. Among popular items inside Primitive

Expressions are tropical and african animal carvings, totem poles, hand-carved wooden sculptures, metal artwork, colorful tropical birds, chimes and signs - many of which can be customized for you while you shop. ‘It’s all about the fun’ for Shawn at Primitive Expressions. You can visit his store on the corner of South St and Row C-South which is just inside the C-South Entrance in the South parking lot. Follow on Facebook @ primitiveexpressionsimports and also order online at primitiveexpressions.com. Drop a line at primitiveexpressions@cfl.rr.com or call/text 407-467-8197
