Business Expense Reimbursement

The Office shall reimburse an employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee within the employee's scope of employment and directly related to services performed for the Office. "Necessary expenditures" means all reasonable expenditures or losses required of the employee in the discharge of employment duties that inure to the primary benefit of the Office. The Office is not responsible for losses due to the following: 1) an employee's own negligence; 2) normal wear and tear; or 3) theft, unless the theft was a result of the Office's negligence. The employee shall submit to the Treasurer or designee any necessary expenditures with supporting documentation within 30 calendar days after incurring the expense. The Office reserves the right to request additional supporting documentation if it reasonably considers previously submitted supporting documentation insufficient. The employee shall submit to the Office a signed statement indicating if supporting documentation is nonexistent, missing, or lost.

If the employee fails to comply with this policy, the Office may reject the request for reimbursement. Only authorized or required expenditures submitted in accordance with this policy will be reimbursed.

The following is a non-exhaustive list of expenditures that, depending on an employee's job duties, may be authorized or required and, if so, would be reimbursed by the Office to the employee for the portion directly related to the services performed for the Office: cell phone; computer, laptop or tablet; talk, text and/or data plan; internet access; office supplies; rental car, taxi, ride-share, bus, train, plane or other transportation expenditure; roadway tolls; hotel accommodations; mileage; meals (excluding alcohol); safety equipment; and uniforms.

Prior to incurring any expenditures, the employee shall confer with the Treasurer or designee who will determine whether the intended expenditure qualifies as a necessary expenditure. The Office is not responsible for any portion of an expenditure amount that exceeds the specifications of this policy. If the Treasurer or designee authorizes the expenditure, the Office will reimburse the employee in accordance with this policy.

The Treasurer will post this policy on the Lyons Trustees Township of Schools website and/or make this policy available in the Treasurer's administrative office.
