

Jacqueline M. Lacy
Chief Public Defender
Vermilion County Illinois

Jacqueline M. Lacy, Attorney At Law, graduated from Oswego High School in 1995. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from Western Illinois University in 1998 and her Juris Doctorate from The John Marshall Law School in 2002. In 2010, Ms. Lacy was appointed the Vermilion County Public Defender. Prior to coming to Vermilion County, Ms. Lacy was a Supervising Senior Assistant in DuPage County Public Defender's Office since 2008. She began as an Assistant Public Defender in DuPage County in 2003 and has spent most of her career advocating for the indigent except for a short hiatus when she went into private law practice from 2005 to 2006.

Currently, she is a Board Member on Land of Lincoln Goodwill Industries, Inc.; Danville Library Foundation; and Danville Boys and Girls Club.

Jacqueline Lacy is a member of Vermilion County Bar Association; Illinois State Bar Association; Eastern Central Illinois Women Attorney Association; Illinois Counsel of Chief Defenders; Illinois Public Defender Association; and Vermilion County Farm Bureau.