

Cromer 29th January-1st February - Dave & Pat Sharp held another of their “Dancing for Pleasure” weekends at the lovely old Edwardian sea front hotel, “The Clintonville,” which was ideally situated just a short walk from the Old Town and the Pier, with so many things of interest to see and do.

Each evening we danced in the Hotels beautiful chandeliered ‘Warwick Ballroom’ and we had two excellent musicians to play – David Last on Friday and Sunday & Elizabeth Harrison on the Saturday.

With a great programme of Old Time Dances every evening, there was a full floor for nearly every dance.

Each morning, after an excellent breakfast, there was a teaching session in the ballroom where Pat & Dave walked through any dances anyone was unsure of or wanted to brush up on. These included some forgotten or neglected dances such as Dream Saunter, Clarendon Saunter, Ambassadors Waltz, Pink Lady Waltz, Red Moon Tango and, of course, the Tango Quadrilles.

This really was an excellent weekend of old time which slipped by so effortlessly, we were inclined to forget this did not happen by chance – it was only made possible as a result of all the hard work behind the scenes by our hosts – Pat & Dave Sharp - so a very big “Thank You” to them both and “Well Done.”
